Charles Nickersons Celebrate Golden Wedding at Boardman

By Flossie Coats
Boardman—The Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickerson was celebrated Tuesday evening September 1st, 1953, when the community folk gathered at the Grange hall for an evening honoring the couple with congratulations and program.

After the couple and family were seated, a program of the following numbers was presented. "The Old Flowers", Mrs. Hugh Brown; The family history, read by Mrs. Margaret Klitz. This was written by Mrs. Seth Russell from information gathered from the family; saxophone solo, "Whispering Hope", Connie Baker; vocal solos, "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me", Barbara Eades; Mock wedding, attendants, Mrs. T. W. Rippee and Buster Rands, with Anita Garner flower girl and Dick Walker ring bearer; with Justice of Peace W. E. Garner reading the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson was then presented with a chrome flaring set and floor lamp, a gift from the family and community, also many other beautiful gifts.

The bridal couple and their family was ushered into the dining room where a three tiered wedding cake decked the center table. After the bride cut the traditional first piece of cake the group was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated in white and gold flowers. The following assisted with the preparation: program, Mrs. Russell Miller, Mrs. Seth Russell; guest book, Mrs. Leo Root; cutting and serving the wedding cake, Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. R. B.
