Tricks With Tapioca Puddings

Autumn and winter days are busy ones for the homemaker—when she can be especially thankful for the variety of packaged foods that have done so much to lighten the burden of three meals a day. Take packaged puddings, for example, and packaged tapioca puddings in particular. The modern woman can prepare a creamy, delicious tapioca pudding, in any one of three flavors, in a little more than five minutes. Here is the basic recipe, simple and easy to prepare:

Tapioca Cream

1 package prepared chocolate, vanilla or orange-coconut tapioca pudding

2 cups milk

Turn pudding mixture into saucepan. Add milk and mix well. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. (Mixture will be thin. Do not overcook.) Cool, stirring once after 15 or 20 minutes—mixture thickens as it cools. Turn into serving bowl or sherbet glasses. Chill. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

With this as a beginning there is no end to the lovely desserts that can be concocted. Walnuts or almonds, cut or stuffed dates, figs or prunes, available the year 'round, can be used as garnish, or stirred into the pudding itself. And these are just a few of the possible variations limited only by your imagination.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell O'Donnell had as overnight guests on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wallhart of Estacada, Oregon.
