

Lexington P-TA Plans Chili Supper For November

By Delpha Jones

PTA met last Tuesday evening in the school auditorium with vice-president Mary Bates presiding. Minutes were read and approved. Discussion was held on Christmas treats, program, etc., and the ways and means committee reports a chili supper and program to be held in the early part of November. After a most successful business meeting Mrs. Norman Nelson and Mrs. Markham Baker gave interesting talks on their trip to the American Confederation of Women's Club convention to which they were delegates. Later, refreshments were served in the lunch room by the following ladies, Mrs. Kenneth Klinger, Mrs. Art Hunt, Mrs. Alex Hunt and Mrs. T. E. Messenger Sr.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske and daughter, Mrs. Audrey Ansted and small son, returned the first of the week from Portland where they motored taking Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske's daughter Pat to her training in Good Samaritan hospital after the weekend vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Harra have had as their guests this week Mr. O'Harra's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. O'Harra and Mrs. Price, a sister from Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Papineau were visitors in Goldendale, Washington on Friday where they attended the funeral services of a cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Papineau and daughters were Newport, Washington visitors, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards and son and daughter, spent several days visiting friends and relatives in Lexington last week from their home in Ephrata.

Dinner guests of the O. W. Cutsforth at their cabin Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and children, Mrs. Rhoda Jones, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Earl

The old fever of who is to be the winner at the district playoff is beginning to take hold of the school and community. If the boys follow the coaches' instructions and can maintain the present playing attitude this fever may prove to be a reality.

A busy week is in store for the Girl's League of the high school in the new cafeteria Oct. 25 and they solicit the support of the district in this event. Another National Assembly will be held in the cafeteria Oct. 23 at 10:45 by the Harmonians.

The school and the grange wish all parents and patrons of the community to join with them in a Halloween party at the grange hall, Oct. 31. A real old fashioned party will be given followed by a dance. Further details will be given later.

Superintendent Chester L. Ward, James Mallon, Bill Pendleton attended a coach and principals meeting in Stanfield Oct. 12 where problems on athletics were discussed.

The seniors, who lost in the recent contest with the other classes, will give a party for the entire student body Nov. 10.

Plans are under way for a Victory party sponsored by the Student body to be given after the football season and just before the basketball season.

Turning from the activities of the school to the students much stress is being placed on the academic work each day and the students are working hard and faithfully on their assignments to keep the upper brackets of their grade. All in all with fine cooperation of the teachers the Ione public schools are very busy.

Ione football team play here Friday Oct. 23 with Echo at 2 p. m.
