MISS RITA COX BECOMES BRIDE OF JOHN SUMNER AT SUNDAY CEREMONY

Miss Rita Helen Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cox became the bride of John David Sumners at a beautiful afternoon ceremony Sunday, November 1, at the Methodist church in Hepner. Reverend L. D. Boulden performed the double ring service.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was charming in a white chanelly lace and satin gown with six tiers of nylon net ruffles cascading down the front of the skirt. Her nylon tulle fingertip veil was held by a lace and seed pearl headress. She carried a white orchid with streamers of stephanotis on a white bible. A pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, was the bride's only adornment.

Miss Corinne Long of Pendleton was the bride's attendant and wore a grape purple gown of nylon net and velvet and carried an arch of large white beauty mums. Serving as candle-lighters were Phyllis Quackenbush and Judy Barger who wore pastel net over taffeta formals. They carried white tapers with pink net and gold sequins.

Mary Cox, sister of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed similar to the maid of honor in a peppermint pink dress and carried a nosegay of pink bavardias and pink net with gold sequins.

Best man for the groom was Thomas Sumner of Arlington, brother of the groom, and ushers were Bradley Fancher, James Lovegren, Jay Sumners and Jerry Haguewood.

The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with large baskets of white beauty mums and fern, and candelabras of white tapers. White satin bows were at the ends of each pew.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of wood violet, with black accessories and wore a rubrum lily corsage. Mrs. Sumner wore an afternoon gown of metallic grey antique taffeta with black accessories and also wore a rubrican lily corsage.

Mr. L. D. Bolton presided at the organ during the ceremony. The reception followed immediately after the wedding ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The bride and groom cut the first piece of the four tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bell and bride and groom.

The serving table was daintily decorated with white tapers in silver bowls of pink roses and pink bavardias and a wreath of pink roses encircled the wedding cake.

Mrs. William Duff of Pendleton and Mrs. William Newell of Portland continued with the cutting of the cake while Mrs. L. M. Wells of Pendleton poured and Mrs. Phillip Remillard of Outlook, Washington presided at the punch bowl.

Serving were Misses Mary Ruth Green, Patsy Wright and Sally Palmer, Miss Leta Humphreys, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush and Mrs. Rita Thorpe assisted about the rooms.

Jean Marie Graham was in charge of the gifts and Diane Grant took charge of the guest book.

Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. Sumner and Mrs. James Lovegren.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a brown tweed suit with brown alligator pumps and bag.

The newlyweds, both graduates of Hepner high school, will be at home on the Cox ranch after a wedding trip to California.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Penney, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Al Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wells, all of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Luck, Mr. and Mrs. Ari Osborne of Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stone, of Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Remillard, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fields of Outlook, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheerer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson, Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Isom, Arlington; Mrs. T. Y. Sumners, Mrs. Tom Wyman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wyman of Prineville.
