

Morgan F. Lodges situation

Echo Palmateer

Two members of the Gideon society from Eugene presented Bibles to the teachers and school children Monday.

Dates to remember:
Nov. 20—H E C meeting.
Nov. 21—Grange meeting at 8 p. m.
Nov. 28—Dance at the Legion hall.
Nov. 28—Social meeting of the Topic club at the Noel Dobyns home at 8 p. m.
Dec. 3—Extension Unit meeting at the Masonic all day meeting. Subject — Food for Entertaining with Mrs. Jimmy Pettyjohn and Mrs. Earl McKinney as leaders.

Mrs. Harold Deardorf City spent the weekend with Mrs. Chester L.

Mrs. Wylie Knighten of the weekend with her daughter, Miss Jean Knighten.

Missie Griffith and Mrs. Palmateer returned home from California. Mrs. Palmateer visited her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bryon and other relatives in Chico and also attended the National Livestock Exchange. Mrs. Palmateer and her son-in-law and daughter also went to Los Angeles and Catalina.

Mrs. Francis Ely of the weekend with her son, Geo. N. Ely and also, the football game here

Mrs. Gordon White and son Charles and Mrs. Harvey Ring and niece Linda Rowell were Portland visitors the first of the week.
Mrs. Bert and Olga Johnson of Portland are here for a few days.
Norman Swanson of Portland spent the weekend here.
Mr. and Mrs. Mallon from near Portland spent the weekend with their son, James Mallon.
Mr. and Mrs. Kedric Baker and family of Walla Walla spent the weekend with his brother, E. M. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnett of Grass Valley spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Earl McKinney. Their son, Kieith, is manager of the Moro high school football team who won from Malin Saturday. Moro will now play with Union.

Mrs. Harlan Devin and children of Condon visited her mother Mrs. Lana Padberg Sunday.
Earl Padberg of La Grande is spending his vacation with his father, L. J. Padberg and other relatives. He is employed in the college there.

Pvt. Billie Joe Rietmann of Fort Lewis spent the weekend here.
Mrs. Charles O'Connor reviewed the play, "Good Bye My Fancy" at the study meeting of the Topic club at the home of Mrs. Noel Dobyns Friday Nov. 13. The club decided not to hold a Smorgasbord next year. They will decide on other means for raising money for the public library. Mrs. Victor Rietmann was the other hostess.

The Maranatha club held a very successful dinner, bazaar and food sale at the cafeteria on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lieuallen of Pendleton spent the weekend with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCabe and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eubanks and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brady at Arlington Sunday.

Island shelves have been installed in the Ione Public Library. Books added the past week are Sam Houston, The Tallest Texan, by Johnson; Rogue Valley by Weat; The Chieftain by Payne; Seek the Dark Gold by Lundy and The Diary of a Young Girl.

The Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Merle Baker Tuesday Nov. 10 with Mrs. Phil Emert and Mrs. Phil Griffin as co-hostesses. Mrs. Edith Nicholson gave a very interesting talk on garden clean-up. Mrs. Omar Rietmann gave a report on ideas of flower shows that she heard discussed at the Pendleton meeting. Mrs. Roland Bergstrom lead in a flower show discussion. Material for making corsages and arrangements were on display. It was decided to have an arrangement display at the Swanson store some time in December. The roll call was "What is nice in the garden this month." Mrs. Sam Esteb received the guest prize. There were 14 members present and Mrs. Chester L. Ward and Mrs. Henry Baker were the guests.

Mrs. Verner Troedson was elected president of the Maranatha club at a meeting at the Community church basement Thursday of last week. Mrs. L. L. Howton was elected vice president and Mrs. Earl McKinney, secretary and treasurer. The day was spent cleaning the church. A meal was served at noon with Mrs. Troedson and Mrs. Howton as hostesses.

Miss Jaunita Morgan, daughter of E. J. Morgan and Mrs. S. L. Wiles, and Carl Shultz were married in Pendleton Saturday. The couple will live in Ione. A shower was given in her honor at the Legion hall Monday afternoon. She received many lovely gifts.

New Wall Creek Road in Monument Area Discussed

By Millie Wilson

The County Court met Nov. 13 with members of the North Fork Lumber Co. concerning a county road up Wall Creek, but no agreement was made. This road is badly needed by the Northern Grant people and would do much toward helping the Top community to save their mail route.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek and Mead Gilman attended a Legion meeting at Prairie City Nov. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gilman spent last weekend with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Crum drove to Portland Friday. Mrs. Crum will have her thumb, which she injured last summer, operated on. Mr. and Mrs. Rea Gienger and son Billy accompanied them. Billy will enter the Dorenbecker hospital to have skin grafting. Billy was seriously burned when he and other children built a fire in the barn and then threw gasoline on it. Billy was the only one burned.

The people of the Top community were circulating a petition this week to try and save their mail route, which they have been warned they would lose at the end of the fiscal year.

Mr. Holeman of The Dalles, spent several weeks at the Stanley Musgrave and the Rho Bleakman homes at Top, returning to The Dalles Nov. 10th. Mrs. Edith Musgrave and daughter, Mirinda accompanied him. Stanley Musgrave left November 12th to bring them home. While in The Dalles Mirinda had a medical check-up.

Lynn Forrest left Thursday for McMinnville to get his wife, Irene, who is convalescing, from a recent operation in Portland, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rhose in McMinnville.

Mark Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Fleming of Eugene, came to Monument for some elk hunting. He was successful as a hunter and killed a nice one this week. Another successful hunter was Henry Cupper, who bagged a six point bull elk last Saturday.

Mrs. Lydia Wilson and daughter, Gracie of Hardman stopped in Monument Wednesday on their way to Hamilton to visit Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mabel Corley. On their way home they visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cox.

Mrs. Delbert Stubblefield drove to Bend last Thursday so her mother, Mrs. Chas. Holmes could receive medical aid.
Ben Spain, manager of the Columbia Power Co-op and Jack Sweek, the assistant manager, returned home Thursday after attending business meetings in Spokane for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jewell are driving a new Chevrolet pickup this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Page left on Thursday for their new home at Ocean Lake. From there they will go to Victoria B. C. to visit until Christmas.
Mamie Fergersen received word from her son-in-law in Dodge City, Kansas that her daughter was seriously ill. Her daughter-in-law Irma Fergersen of Dayville came for her Friday. She planned to fly from Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Neel are the parents of a baby boy born at the Prineville hospital on Armistice Day. The maternal grand-

Continued on Page 6

THE SEASON

The cool snappy weather, the days dark and drear, is serving us notice—winter soon will be here!
The forest fire season with its summer weather mes—ing cold winter days ing season in our homes!
The danger of fire in kind, take each hazard with care! Make sure you've insurance to reduce the value invested there.
All Your Insurance Needs
A. RUGGLES
6-9625 Box 611
Hepner, Oregon

Sleep warm, sleep well...

enjoy all night the relaxing comfort of a light and cozy electric blanket

FREE TURKEY

A
14-LB.
TURKEY
IS
YOURS
FREE

WITH THE PURCHASE OF A FRIGIDAIRE
Model RS-38 Thrifty-Thirty
RANGE
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!

Now a big 14 pound turkey is yours FREE with the purchase, for a limited time only, of the popular Frigidaire Thrifty-Thirty electric range that features the giant size oven in a range that is only 30 inches wide. In addition you get all the other features you expect in a range including lifetime porcelain oven and cabinet, full width storage drawer, 4 top burners and the many other Frigidaire advantages. See this ad today and get your Thanksgiving turkey FREE!

249⁹⁵ And Big Trade-in
For Your Old Range

Hepner Refrigeration

NATIONAL AVERAGE PACIFIC POWERLAND

Here in Pacific Powerland the price of electricity is less than half the national average