

Heppner Gazette Times

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, November 26, 1953

AT HEPPNER VARIETY, Meridy Webb, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb Jr. just couldn't resist trying one of the trikes that owner Bill Blake has in stock. The big lifelike doll caught her eye too, as did many of the other children's toys now on display in this modern Christmas store. Mothers and Dads too, can find plenty of fine gift suggestions here.

HEPPNER REFRIGERATION'S attractive display of the new Frigid-aire automatic washer and dryer takes the eye of Bob Dickenson of Lexington. They are just two of the complete line of Frigid-aire appliances that this modern Heppner store has in stock for Christmas shoppers. For the musically inclined they also carry pianos and the popular Hammond Chord Organ.

Ione P-TA Hears Talk by Ecuador Exchange Delegate

By Echo Palmateer
Rena Arteaga of Ecuador gave a talk at the P-TA meeting Wednesday evening Nov. 18 about his country. After his talk he answered many questions from the audience on the climate, schools etc. in his country. Other numbers on the program which was conducted by Mrs. Alfred Nelson, were: Thanksgiving poems by Miss Anna Winecoff, a vocal solo by Mrs. Claude Riley, and three violin solos by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse. It was decided not to hold a meeting in Dec. on account of the community tree and program. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ida Coleman, Mrs. Clegg Rea, Mrs. Garland Swanson and Mrs. Delbert Emert. The P-TA will sponsor the sale of tickets for the basketball games with St. Joseph Dec. 18 and 19. Mrs. John Eubanks who is the chairman on the soliciting committee for the community Christmas tree wishes that the parents on bus routes would please give their donations to the bus drivers either meet them or have the children give it to them. This should be done during the week Nov. 30 to Dec. 5. Mrs. Wate Crawford and sons, Arthur and Rollo, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford and Marilyn and Gary Morgan went to Helix Friday evening to attend a high school play there. Mrs. Crawford's grandson, Rodney Crawford was in the play. Mrs. Donald Peterson and children left for Portland Saturday morning.

The Amica club met in the basement of the community church Wednesday Nov. 18 with Mrs. A. A. Stefani and Mrs. Delmer Crawford as hostesses. Games were played and those winning prizes were Mrs. Tommy Bristow and Mrs. John Proudfoot. Mrs. Ray Heimbigner received the door prize. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grater and children of Ashwood were recent visitors at the home of her brother, Fredrick Martin. The school band gave their fall concert Friday evening with David Raskin as their leader. Numbers played were: El Capitán, Beau Gesto, Rumbalita, Semper Dixieland, Syncopated Clock, Three Little Pigs, Vaya Con Dios and Manhattan Beach. Judy Howton played a solo on the saxophone. Sax-Caprice, accompanied by Mrs. L. L. Howton. Mrs. Earl King is visiting at the home of her son, James L. Lindsay.
