Lex Grange Seats New Officers At Impressive Ceremony

Mrs. Karl Miller had for her lecture hour at the Lexington Grange Jan. 2 a program of retiring the 1953 officers and seating the new officers of the Grange. Mrs. Doris Graves, acting marshal for the retiring officers presented Mrs. Helen Nelson at the Altar to the lecturer and in behalf of the members of the Grange she extended congratulations for the fine work they had done and presented each with a corsage. Mrs. Faye Munkers, H. E. C. chairman was also received at the Altar and was given congratulations and a corsage.

Acting stewards, Helen Nelson and Ted McMillan aided with the seating of the new officers and Charlene Jones carried a gold gilded basket holding corsages and boutonnières of office. Edith Miller, lecturer, escorted each officer preceded by the flower girl, under the staves held by the stewards to their stations and extended to each congratulations on behalf of the Grange members and presented them with their flowers. Also to each member a gold link was given to make a golden chain which signifies the holding together the members of the Grange in faith, hope and charity. Lucia Cutsforth was musician during the ceremony.
