

First Wedding Performed in New Monument Church

By Millie Wilson
The first wedding to be held in the new Presbyterian church by Rev. Paul Kimmel was that of Julia Ann (Dickson) Wheeler and Luther C. Stafford of Prineville. Nadine Wheeler, mother of the bride was the matron of honor and James C. Stafford, brother of the groom acted as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Everett Wheeler, Mrs. James C. Stafford and baby were also present. The bride attended the Monument high school and has many friends in this area. The young couple will make their home in Prineville.

Mrs. George Capon has been quite ill with a virus infection. She was taken to the John Day Medical Center for medical aid last Monday. It was necessary for her to remain in the hospital for several days. On Wednesday Mr. Capon and daughter, Mrs. Lois Hill visited her. She returned home last Friday.

Mrs. Reta King moved from the ranch to her home in Monument last Thursday. Due to the cold weather earlier in the week, she found the water pipes frozen.

Harry Capon was a business visitor in John Day last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork were hosts to the choir practice last Thursday. Next week the meeting will be at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Kimmel.

January 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman attended the Rural School Board meeting in the court house at Canyon City. All district school members were invited to attend the Budget meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beardsley were attending to matters of business in John Day January 18. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Round were attending to matters of business in Portland last week. Their sons, Ronnie and Donnie were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Round. Mr. and Mrs. Round returned home Monday. They reported lots of snow and very slick roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hooker and daughters Ramona and Caroline and Mrs. Paul Kimmel and son Peter, spent last Sunday in Heppner. Caroline, who has had pneumonia went for a medical checkup, so she could enter the school Monday. Peter also had a medical checkup.

Otis Stubblefield has been quite ill at his home this week. His brother, Orin of Portland has been with him also. Ike Shank and Dorsey Hardy of John Day, they left for their homes in John Day on Friday. Mr. Stubblefield is feeling some better.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, at the Guard Station, had friends from Salem to spend the week end with them.

The Sunday school teachers of the Presbyterian Church held a meeting last Monday. Rev. Paul Kimmel showed a film strip that was enjoyed by all present. It was decided to hold the teacher meetings every two weeks.

Mrs. Chloe Page states that her sister, Helen Porter of British Columbia is staying with their sister, Mrs. Rachel Griffin at Kimberly. Mrs. Griffin was released from the rest home at Mt. Vernon Springs at Christmas time.

Monument high school basketball and volleyball teams play the Mt. Vernon teams at Mt. Vernon last Friday night. The girls won their volleyball game but both first and second basketball teams were defeated. Saturday night they played Dayville, but the score was not available at this writing.

Grandma Capon is spending several days as a guest of Wave Jackson, due to the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Doris Capon.

The 5th and 6th grade students have finished their first semester's exams and are now ready to start their second semester work.

Monday night and Tuesday morning had the coldest temperature of the year, with a reading of zero. On Friday morning the reading was 50 degrees above. No doubt that the changeable weather has been the cause of so many colds and several cases of pneumonia.

Donald Gilman, student at E. O. College at La Grande, spent the weekend at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mead Gilman. Donald accompanied Jerry Porter to Long Creek. Jerry came home to attend the funeral services for his aunt, Mrs. Grace Tanler.

Mrs. Helen Brown recently received word from her son, Lt. Col. Chet Christenson of the Marines, who was sent to Korea last August, that he is being transferred back to the states and he will be stationed in Chicago. The Christensons, thinking he would be several years in Korea, bought a home in San Francisco for Mrs. Christenson and children.

The M. M. M. club held its regular meeting at the home of Goldie Round January 21st. There were sixteen present. Grace Stirritt gave a report on her talk with County Road Master Beatty. Mr. Beatty assured her we would get some help in graveling the road to the cemetery. After the business meeting, games were played. Ella Durst won the first prize and Daisy Riley the consolation. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Grace Stirritt. There were three visitors present, Mrs. Alta Wright of John Day, Mrs. Chloe Page and Mrs. Pearl Martin. Mrs. Page paid her dues and became a member

Lexington VFW Forms Auxiliary

By Delpha Jones
The ladies of the V. F. W. met last Friday afternoon in the Ladies Aid room at the Congregational church for the purpose of organizing an auxiliary. This was done with the aid of some visitors from Pendleton. At this time they held an election of officers with the installation to be held at a later date. All reports state this was a most successful meeting and the visitors present were: Mrs. Nadene Mize, dist. pres. and Mrs. Beulah Hanover, pres. of the Pendleton Post. Mrs. Helen Brown and Mrs. Bonita Campbell, members of the Pendleton Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Monday night.

The membership drive of the Farm Bureau got off to a fine start Monday night at a banquet held in the Three Links dining room. The menu consisted of tomato juice cocktail, strawstack salad, roast chicken and dressing, potatoes and gravy and lemon merrangue pie and peas, carrots and side dishes. The tables were decorated with goal posts and bales of hay and small animals. The speaker for the evening being Judge Garnet Barratt of Heppner.

before the meeting closed. The club members were glad to welcome Mamie Ferguson back. She has been in Kansas with her daughter, who has been seriously ill. Mrs. Page was appointed to meet with the city council to see what can be done about the street lights. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ella Durst.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hinton and daughters, Sharon and Mary Ella returned home from Portland last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hinton resumed her duties as primary teacher on Wednesday. Lydia Capon had charge of Mrs. Hinton's room while she was away.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Olsen is visiting with her father and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and Mrs. Alta Cutsforth of Heppner. The Olsens live in Freewater.

Maxwell Henry Breeding, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding has received his call to the U. S. Navy and plans on leaving on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Way were hostesses to a party Saturday night after the play practice of the play "Comin' Round the Mountain" to be given on Feb. 11. Lovely refreshments were served the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols, Cherry Grey, June Cooper and Ken Way and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Vinsen of Heppner and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Way. Those not in play entertained themselves playing pinocle.

The boys serving at the Farm Bureau dinner were Jerry Messenger, Donald Hunt, George Hermann and Vern Nolan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt entertained several of the play cast at their home on Sunday afternoon with the following being in attendance: Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mr. E. B. Way, Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth, Cherry Grey, Inez McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McFadden, and Raymond Gonty of Heppner. Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening, and pinocle was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger have received word of his transfer to a job at Mitchell. Mrs. Messenger will leave in the very near future and his family will follow later. The Messengers have three children in school.

T. E. Messenger Jr. of Hermiston has returned to his home after an appendectomy in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Mrs. and Mr. T. E. Messenger Sr. and Mrs. Zinter of Ione have been caring for the daughters while their father has been ill.

Camp Fire Notes

OKIWANITA CAMP FIRE GROUP

The Okiwanita Camp Fire group met January 18 at the Episcopal parish hall with Mary Kay Slocum president, in charge. Sheryl Harris and Janet Thompson read their letters from their penpals. Bernice Thomson also received her letter from her foreign penpal.

The meeting was opened by singing The Law of The Camp Fire Girls.

Judy Parsons read the minutes of the last meeting. Some of the girls handed in their stories about how Christmas was celebrated in two other countries and these girls have now earned a bead.

Mrs. Stephen Thompson showed us some pictures of folk dancing and taught us two folk dances: Briar Rose Bud and How do you do My Partner.
