By Echo Palmateer

The following officers were installed at the Rebekah lodge meeting Thursday evening Feb. 4: Mrs. Anna Ball, noble grand; Mrs. Mabel Ring, vice grand; Mrs. Edith Matthews, secretary; Mrs. Mary Swanson, treasurer; Mrs. Eva Hamlett, warden; Mrs. Lorraine Ball, conductor; Mrs. Arvilla Swanson, chaplain; Mrs. Gladys Drake, musician; Mrs. Helen Pettyjohn, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Norma Rea, left supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Lena Lundell, right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Ida Esteb, left supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Ida Coleman, in side guardian; Mrs. Mable Crawford, outside guardian. The installing officers were Mrs. Vida Heilker, district deputy president and Mrs. June O'Connor, marshal. After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. David Rietmann, Mrs. Ernest McCabe, Mrs. L. A. McCabe, Mrs. Rea and Mrs. O'Connor. Mrs. Pettyjohn was elected as trustee of the lodge for a term of 3 years.

At the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday, Feb. 2 a food sale was planned for March 6 at 2 p. m. at the Legion hall. Pie and coffee will also be served. Cookies will be sent to Camp White at the March 2 meeting and members are requested to bring cookies. $5 was given to the March of Dimes; and the junior members solicited for the polio fund. Material was given out to make Easter dresses for the Portland Child Welfare center. Two large scrolls were placed on the wall in the dining room, one is written the Star Spangled Banner and the other the preamble of the Auxiliary constitution. These were hand printed by Mrs. Matthew Ball. After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. David McLeod and Mrs. Corliss McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Crum are the parents of a daughter, Kathleen Ella, born Feb. 2 at the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner. Weight 9 lbs. and 2 ozs. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Strahm of The Dalles, and George Crum and Mrs. Grace Crum are the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Griffin attended the funeral services of his sister, Mrs. Vena Kaiser, in Maupin Feb. 3. Mrs. Kaiser was born Oct. 3, 1888 at Keokuk county, Iowa and moved to Ione when she was 5 years old with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Griffin. She was married to H. R. Kaiser in 1905 and moved to Wasco where she lived until her death in Portland Jan. 29. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge, the Spanish American War Veterans auxiliary and the Methodist church. Surviving are her widower, H. R. Kaiser of Maupin; a son, H. R. Kaiser, Jr. of Corvallis; a daughter, Winifred of Cordova, Alaska; Three brothers, Francis Griffin of The Dalles, and Phil Griffin of Ione; two sisters, Mrs. Verda Ritchie of Portland, and Mrs. Lydia Ball of Yakima and three grand children.

Mrs. Winnie Zinter and son, William, attended the funeral services of her sister Mrs. Lela Johnson of Santa Rosa, Calif., Jan. 30. The services were held in the Christian church there with Rev. Howard Stansberry officiating. The ladies of the Moose lodge had charge of part of the services. The American Legion auxiliary and the V. F. W. auxiliary attended in a body. Mrs. Johnson was known here as she spent three summers at the Zinter ranch. She died Jan. 27 and is survived by a son Allen Johnson at Santa Rosa and a daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Elliott of Willits, Calif.; three sisters and two brothers and 9 grandchildren.

On their way home the Zinters stopped at Bay City and visited the H. N. Waddells. Mr. Waddell conducts Bible school at Winema and also is working in the plywood plant. Mrs. Waddell is cooking in the grade school at Cloverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson attended the funeral services of her brother-in-law, W. S. Brown, in Salem Tuesday. He is survived by his widow, Katy, and two sons and two daughters. Mrs. Swanson and sister Miss Lena Miller went to Salem the first of last week and Mr. Swanson and Jimmy left Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and daughters left for their home in Hermiston Monday after staying at the Zinter ranch.

Council Meets
At the meeting of the city council Tuesday evening, Robert Miller of the Miller truck line was present, to talk over with the council, the problems of parking the commercial trucks on the streets. The council decided to move the fire siren to the new city hall.
