Slides of Round The World Tour Shown to Soroptimist Club

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert of Portland showed slides of their 35,000 mile round-the-world tour to the Soroptimist club and their guests at a dinner meeting Thursday evening at O'Donnell's.

Localities shown included Malay Peninsula, Singapore, Bangkok, Rangoon, Calcutta, Benares, Bombay, Beirut, Jerusalem, Turkey, Athens, Italy, England, Switzerland, France and the Scandinavian countries.

They did not show their pictures of Hawaii as they felt so many were already familiar with them and their pictures of Australia and New Zealand were lost in transit back to the United States.

They could not visit Cairo and Egypt as the upheaval in the political situation there was taking place at the time of their trip.

The entire showing was supplemented by interesting narration by both Mr. and Mrs. Gabbert.

Guests present at the meeting were Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. E. L. Gresham, Mrs. B. G. Sigsbee, Mrs. B. Hughes, Mrs. Dee Jones, Sr., Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. Sara McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall, Loyal Parker and E. E. Gonty.

Preschool Clinic for Deaf Children Set

The Oregon State School for the Deaf will hold its sixth annual pre-school clinic for parents of young deaf and hard of hearing children on April 12, 13, and 14, superintendent M. B. Clatterbuck announced today.

The purpose of this clinic is to assist parents in working with their deaf child and to acquaint them with the educational facilities for the deaf in the state of Oregon.

Parents will have an opportunity to observe classes from the kindergarten level through high school work. Various members of the staff of the Oregon State School for the deaf will discuss problems of the deaf and hard of hearing.

Parents are asked to bring their deaf or hard of hearing child with them, and living accommodations will be furnished by the school during the clinic without cost to the parents.

Anyone who is interested in attending should contact their local county health department or write directly to M. B. Clatterbuck, superintendent, Oregon State School for the Deaf, Salem.
