Girls Volleyball Tournament Set For Boardman

By Flossie Coats

BOARDMAN — The Boardman school will be host to the girls championship Eastern Oregon volleyball tournament, April 3, beginning at 9:30 a. m. with eight teams participating. Officials will be four young ladies from the Whitman College physical education department. Some of the schools participating are: Dufur, Wasco, Heppner, Echo, Boardman, Helix, Irigoin and Cascade Locks.

The Seniors took their annual sneak trip the past weekend, leaving Wednesday evening with their Advisor Tom VanEtten for Sun Valley, Idaho, and returning Sunday evening. Seniors going were Rena Anderson, Wilma Hug, Bob Smith, Larry Thorpe, Leonard Olmstead and Keith Ferguson. The remaining seniors unable to attend went for a days picnic to Pasco, Friday. In this group were Edna Knight, Evelyn Hulit, Dayle Jones, Bernadine Kress and Ted Zivney. Franklin Ball took the party.

A special Soil Conservation meeting was held at the home of Ralph Skoubo March 23rd. This meeting was to dispose of some old business which was important.

Sgt. and Mrs. L. L. Wilson and sons returned home Wednesday from Deadwood, Oregon where they had been for ten days at the home of Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson. Sgt. Wilson left for Fairchild Air Base, Washington Friday.

Miss Dorothy Ball, national director of the Christian Business and Professional Womens organization, was guest speaker at the Boardman Community church on Sunday morning. Miss Ball was accompanied by Miss Beth Aebischer of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Willett and children, Tacoma, Wash., were dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mrs. Willett's father, E. T. Messenger, returning Saturday evening to The Dalles where they called on Mrs. Willett's niece Elaine Hammell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammell, who had recently been shot in the hip.

Miss Joelle Landers, Modesto, Calif., was a recent guest of Miss Zelma Cowan. The ladies were friends for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow had as their guests Tuesday night Mrs. Marlow's sisters, Mrs. Lafa Smith, La Grande and Mrs. Clarence Thomas, Riggins, Idaho.

Sgt. and Mrs. Neil Wolley and daughter, and Mrs. Chas. Woley, Pasco, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Eades one day last week. Upon returning to his base McEllen Field, Calif., Sgt. Wolley will be transferred to Japan.

ONE School Notes

Chester L. Ward, Supt.

Tuesday, April 2 is the date for the athletic banquet and dance. The banquet will be held in the cafeteria and the dance will be in the old gym. This is a school affair in honor of the fine athletic season just completed.

Monday, April 5 the County O. E. A. dinner and meeting will be held. The dinner will be at 6:30 p. m. in the cafeteria. A special program is being prepared and most teachers of the county are expected to attend.

We appreciate very much the work of the Topic Club members in presenting book reviews to the school last week and highly commend the fine public library to the community. The students have just completed their nine weeks of examinations and cards will be given out soon and the honor roll prepared.

Looking forward to commencement, the high school faculty decided on Janet Howton as salutatorian and Duane Baker as the valedictorian. Commencement is to be May 26.

Wednesday of last week superintendent, Ward, attended an administrators meeting in Pendleton. The topics were the shortage of teachers and the future teacher's preparation. Most of the administrators from Morrow and Umatilla counties attended.

Superintendent and Mrs. Ward spent the weekend in Portland where he attended to some school business and she visited her folks. The band will go to La Grande April 10 for the solo contest and April 17 to the band festival. A band concert will be held here on April 13 at 8 p. m.

THE WILLING WORKERS

The Willing Workers met at Mrs. James Allen's home and president Shirley Ganes called the meeting to order. We had the flag pledges and the roll call. Patty DeRosia was the substitute secretary and she read the minutes.

Karen Christian and Virginia Thompson made some roll biscuits.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Allen's and Rose Marie Nash and Eogena Wagner will give a demonstration on cookies.
