THE HOMEMAKERS

The Homemakers girls met on March 31 at the home of Louise Botts. At a previous meeting we decided on the name "The Tidy Girls" for our group. Dorothy Vinson joined our club and we now have nine members.

We discussed patterns and pattern transfers for our dresser scarfs and wall hangings. Our leader showed us how to pull the thread on our material so we will cut our things straight!

We played several games which Louise directed, then she served refreshments.
