

First Pioneer Meeting Planned For May 30

Plans were developing this week for the first of what is planned as an annual event, a Pioneer Decoration Day meeting and potluck dinner, to be held on the courthouse park at noon Sunday, May 30.

The idea originated with Mrs. Guy Boyer of John Day, who was a resident of Heppner for many years, and was quickly taken up by the members of the cemetery maintenance district, who felt that many of the pioneer residents of the county, who return on Memorial day to decorate the graves of relatives, would enjoy a get-together with their friends.

It is now planned to furnish coffee, ice cream and cookies and ask all visitors to bring some type of food to the picnic to make it a popular potluck affair. Members of the board also extended an invitation to local residents to join in the party.

The committee has arranged to have a registration book available and asks that all pioneer residents who visit here over the weekend register. It will be available at the Turner, Van Marter and Bryant insurance office Saturday afternoon and evening and will be at the cemetery on Sunday.

Though an incomplete list of the early residents of Heppner and Morrow County, a special invitation is extended to the following to attend the potluck luncheon.

Mustangs Take Seventh in District Track Meet

By Larry Mollahan

Heppner high school's small but mighty track team came out in seventh place in a field of fourteen competing teams in the "B" division of the District Track Meet at La Grande last Saturday. The crucial point in the track meet for Heppner came when Bill Hughes, Heppner pole vaulter, was locked in a tie with Duane Chapman of Pilot Rock. The two vaulters were tied for the all important second place position which would enable the holder to a state meet berth. As it turned out Hughes won the second place ribbon but winning, forfeited his right to go to the state, while Chapman took third and is going to Salem this Friday.

A surprising thing about the two-senior, two-sophomore, two-junior track squad is that every one of them placed in the event in which they were competing. The top men of the squad, Bill Hughes and Jim Green each placed, Hughes with a second in pole vault and a third in the high jump; Green, fourth in the high hurdles.

The team's two juniors, Lyle Jensen and Larry Mollahan did fairly well as much is going to be expected from them next year. Jensen came in first in his heat and his time ranked a fourth place ribbon. Larry Mollahan, weights man of the Heppner squad took the discus for a ride into a fifth place rating.

The two real stars of the team take form in two sophomores, Skip Ruhl who won third in the 440 and Mike Monahan in the endurance mile.

This being the last interschool competition of the year, the Mustangs are looking forward to next fall when football is king of the fall sports pokes its head over the horizon September 1.

VOTING INTEREST LOW

The winning Republican gubernatorial nominee at the primaries will require the votes of only 93,794 of the 394,921 registered voters of his party. It's the circumstances of how many registrants go to the polls and vote and how many scattered votes are cast. At the last general election, two years ago, the Republican primary vote was barely 50 per cent of the registration figures, and 1952 was a "presidential year of presidential years." The most effectively publicized campaign since the days of the torch light parades before the turn of the century.

The voting per cent this year will be as low as the interest in the campaign. Granting the improbable, that there will be a 50 per cent vote, there would be a total of only 197,460 Republican vote cast. Deducting 5 per cent for scattering votes and illegally marked ballots would leave 187,587 votes divided between Gov. Paul Patterson and Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry.

The winner? The one who polls 93,794 or more votes.

WEAPONS MORE THAN MEN

"Oregon was settled by pioneers who recognized the need of military strength about with a high moral character," declared Lt. Gen. Willard G. Lyman, commanding general of the Sixth Army, in his Armed Forces Day address at the Capitol. "We must have the spiritual and material faith of our fathers if the sacred values of life are to be preserved," he stressed. "We must build around weapons rather than men... in Korea I saw one of our eight inch guns knock out a Communist bridge at 20,000 yards with just five rounds," he explained. "That speaks for itself."

STATE FAIR PLANS EARLY

This year's Oregon State Fair is having an early start and in high tempo. The sale of commercial space is running nearly four months ahead of last year at this time. Fair Manager Leo Spitzbart reported this week. Virtually all of last year's 400 exhibitors have signed up for space this year and over half of them have requested an increase of space.

The famous Helen Hughes stage shows, booked again this year, will require more dressing room space, which is being arranged for a large European-trained chorus of South American beauties.

"RAP SHEET"

An autobiography written by an alumnus of Alcatraz and McNeil Island, now an inmate of the Oregon State penitentiary, is being made into book form by William Sloane and Associates, New York. The author is James H. (Blackie) Audett, 51 one-time pal of leading gangster figures in the period between the two World Wars. He was sentenced in 1950 for 7 1/2 years from Umatilla county on a larceny count and has another two years to serve. The volume has been titled "Rap Sheet." In underworld argot, rap sheet means police record.

LIGHT ON OREGON LAW

Opinions on Oregon law recently released by Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton include: A lease with an option to purchase is not ordinarily construed as a contract of sale or transfer of ownership until option is exercised, and such instruments, unless in substance and effect contracts of sale, are not within the terms of Oregon law requiring increase of interest rate on veterans' loans in event of sale, contract or sale of transfer of ownership to non-veterans.

The Board of Higher Education may contract with foreign powers to send visiting professors for purpose of reorganizing national university curricula and facilities.

The legislature in the event it establishes a separate parks commission, could appropriate gasoline taxes and other highway funds for parks, recreational, scenic or historic places. Such parks or places need not adjoin a highway when acquired.

"Speeders" speed up line patrolling. Many of Pacific Telephone's long distance lines must cross rugged country that's hard to reach on foot. But in cases where out-of-the-way lines parallel a railroad, telephone crews often patrol them in specially designed speeders like the one above. Summer or winter, these handy little vehicles click off mileage in a hurry, hustle men and equipment to make repairs when they're needed. By saving valuable time, they help us cut costs, hold down the price of telephone service. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.
