Evelyn Miller Bride Of Sgt. Matt In Boardman Ceremony

BOARDMAN—A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday May 29 at 11:00 a. m. when Miss Evelyn Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller became the bride of Sgt. Paul John Matt.

The Rev. A. J. Ware, Oregon City officiated at the home. The bride's attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bill Miller, and Bill Miller was best man for the groom.

The bride chose for her dress a white street length, with white carnations. Mrs. Miller also wore street length white background with corsage of red roses.

Others attending the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Boardman; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gaede, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Chase, Gresham; two friends of Mrs. Matts, The Dalles.

Mrs. Matt has been a teacher in The Dalles school system the past two years and Sgt. Matt is stationed at the Bombing Air Base, Boardman.

After a week at the beach the young couple is at home in Boardman.

GOOD LITTLE WORKERS

June 5, 1954 at Leann Padberg's home, The Good Little Workers sewing club had their 8th meeting, working in this project book. Ann Baker and Judy Morgan worked on the drawstrings for Mrs. Fred Parrish took Miss Rod-Lundell, Leann Padberg and Linda Heimbigner worked on their skirts.

Our club leader, Betty Carlson, was sick so our assistant leader Ruth McCabe, helped us with the things we had trouble with.

We've had eight meetings this season and are going to have two more. The next meeting will probably be at Ann Baker's house on June 23.

Leann served apple pie, ice cream and hot chocolate.
