For The Adventurer In Every Man Who Explores With Fork And Grill

Donning cap and apron, the man at the range, adds a gourmet touch to his hamburgers. Over sliced buns, he spreads a mixture of Bleu cheese, butter, mustard and Worcestershire sauce.

It's the boy in every man that makes him an adventurer at heart. If he can't go exploring afar, he can scout the new world of cookery. From a man's point of view, cooking is more fun, if he can dress-up for it. So give him the "props"—chef's apron and cap and supply wonderful food to his liking—plenty of ground beef to be broiled and served between toasted buns.

Watch him roll up his sleeves and give his hamburgers that gourmet touch—a filling combining Bleu cheese, butter, mustard and Worcestershire sauce, which is spread over the cut buns. This chef will serve his hamburgers open-face style accompanied by garden relishes. With a flourish, he will rightly claim his place among daring gourmets who chart new trails for lesser cooks to follow.

Gourmet Hamburgers

- 1/2 cup crumbled Bleu cheese
- 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 6 sandwich buns
- 3 cups (1 1/2 pounds) hamburger
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Combine Bleu cheese, butter, mustard and Worcestershire sauce. Cut buns in half, horizontally. Spread 1 tablespoon butter mixture on each bun half. Combine hamburger, salt and pepper. Shape hamburger into 6 patties. Broil hamburger patties; cook on both sides. During last minutes of broiling, place the buns spread side up, on a cookie sheet, and toast them until bubbly and brown. Place broiled hamburger patty between toasted bun halves. Serve hot.

YIELD: 6 Gourmet Hamburgers.

Name Change Record Important For Social Security

It pays to let the Social Security Administration know when you change your name. This advice to the ladies comes from Ben Kantner, social security representative.

When a woman who has a social security card changes her name by marriage or divorce, she should notify the Social Security Administration as soon as possible. Change of record applications are available at all post-offices and social security offices. Employers should continue to report the wages of a woman who has changed her name under the name on her social security card until she receives her new social security card showing her new name.

Mr. Kantner, field representative from the La Grande social security office, will be in Heppner on Thursday, July 22nd at the City Hall. Those who have questions about social security are invited to contact him from 9:00 a. m. to noon.
