Pork stock show an even sharper drop, being the smallest for any June since 1947. Lamb and mutton stores are only a little more than half as large as last year. Nearly one half of all beef cows in Oregon just January were located in four eastern Oregon counties. In order of importance, they were: Malheur, Lake, Harney, and Klamath.

Catching up on my reading, I noticed three news items you might like to know about. First, a farmer whose milk had a trace of garlic flavor is feeding his cows chlorophyll to sweeten their breaths. Next, a college agricultural station has trained a herd to get milked when they are called by number. Seems 75 out of 80 cows learned their numbers in a few days. Guess the "dumb" five couldn't count that high. Final item—cows are getting "nose-printed" for identification. Joe Marsh'
