THE BUSY STITCHERS

The Busy Stitches 4-H clothing club met at Shirley and Marjorie Peck's on July 8.

Since we couldn't go camping, the club members decided to buy floodlights for the style revue at the county fair with our money that we have earned.

Mrs. Casswell, home demonstration agent, gave the members suggestions for demonstrations. Also, our leader, Mrs. Walter Wright, discussed some points to consider in judging garments. She suggested between now and fair time, that the girls watch for these points on clothing.

Mrs. Harold Peck and Mrs. Hershel Townsend visited the Charmingly Yours group. They are working on their dirndl skirts. The clothing IV and V girls are planning to have garments completed and all members are to have record books up to date by August 18.

Oua next meeting will be held at the Rhea Creek grange hall then.

The members present were Lynda Borman, Helen Graham, Diane Grant, Judy Thompson, Sally Palmer, Shirley Peck, Margie Peck, Brenda Townsend, Meredith Thomson, Patsy Wright and Janet Wright. Jean Graham, a 4-H member from another club and Mrs. Casswell were guests. Refreshments were served. Janet Wright, reporter.

GOOD LITTLE WORKERS

June 23, 1954 perfect attendance was recorded in the Ione Community church basement at the ninth meeting of the Good Little Workers sewing club.

Leann Padberg, Karen Lundell and Linda Heimburger worked on their record books and Ann Baker and Judy Morgan sewed the pockets on their aprons. Refreshments of cookies and orange ade were served by all.

We are to think of ideas for a booth at the fair and decide whether or not we want to give a demonstration.

Also our skirts and aprons are supposed to be finished by the next meeting which will be at Judy Morgan's house July 7.

Linda Heimburger, reporter.
