

Air Base Equipment Helps Stop Grass Fire at Boardman

By Flossie Coats
BOARDMAN — The Army Air Force fire fighting equipment was called Sunday evening to help stop a fire that started from the burning of trash at the city dump grounds. The fire burned up the river toward the E. W. Peck home, but was under control before it reached the house but not before a small shed nearer the river was burned.

The Rev. R. A. Burke, pastor of the Irrigon Baptist church, was the speaker at the Boardman Community church joint meeting Sunday evening. Rev. Rickert, Umatilla Baptist read the scripture and testimonials and Miss Zelma Cowan and Miss Jean Scott were in charge of the singing. The Irrigon young people sang one special number and also Miss Scott and Miss Cowan a duet. The next joint meeting will be in August at the Irrigon Baptist church.

After several month of observation we find that we have one of the finest setups in the state. Due to the geographic distribution of the district it is difficult for the transportation of the pupils. But by careful planning by the school board and administration, 9 routes have been outlined which provide adequate transportation for all who need it. After dealing with the problem of transportation emphasis was turned to the academic program. Any teacher coming to the staff is a teacher first. This being a starting point, the board and administration proceeded to outline fundamental policies. These policies take in the school organization and relationship to all activities, the control and organization of all activities, the educational and business administration of the school. These policies have provided for the needs and ambition and desire of the young people and the children. With much consideration, work and cooperation, the district now has one of the finest organized and achievement set-ups to be found.

and general swimming under the supervision of a qualified water instructor and lifeguard. The latest addition to this full program is a wading pool for the small children which is, also, under the supervision of the board and administration.

All of this fine program would not have been possible if it were not for the fine cooperation of the people of the community. They are the backing of such a progressive program.

Ione has less than 200 pupils in both grade and high school together.

PEACHY PRESERVERS
 We met at the home of Patsy and Janet Wright Thursday July 22.

The meeting was called to order by Helen Graham in the absence of the president, Jean Marie Graham.

We discussed things that would be good for demonstrations at the fair. We also discussed if we would have a booth and what kind we would have. We talked about contests we could enter. The meeting was adjourned.
