Outdoor Barbecue

This time of year there'll be plenty of meals served al fresco, backyard, or plain old picnic style, for whether it's thick steak or homely franks and hamburgers, it all tastes better in the fresh air. Have an easy barbecue sauce recipe handy, make it at the broiler, and make it good with Tabasco just before swabbing on your meat. One famous old Southern recipe goes as well with chicken and steak as it does with hamburgers and franks so it fits all moods and pocketbooks. Here's how to prepare it:

Barbecue Sauce Tabasco
 1 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
 1 teaspoon dry mustard ½ teaspoon Tabasco
 1 cup vinegar 1 tablespoon sugar
 1 minced clove garlic ½ cup catchup
 Combine salt and mustard in saucepan. Add about ¼ cup vinegar to make a paste. Gradually stir in ¾ cup more vinegar. Add garlic, Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco, sugar and catchup. Simmer 10 minutes. This makes 1½ cups of barbecue sauce, enough for frequent basting of meat for a crowd.
