Mrs. Wm. Rawlins Takes Sweepstakes At Flower Show

By Echo Palmateer
The competition was keen for the sweepstakes award at the Ione Garden Club Flower Show Sunday afternoon between Mrs. Wm. Rawlins, the winner, and Mrs. Edith Nicholson. The award was given the person receiving the most blue ribbons. Since Mrs. Rawlins and Mrs. Nicholson tied with five each, the red ribbons were used to determine the contest. The winner won five against four red. Mrs. Nicholson was given a consolation prize. The sweepstakes award was a three piece ceramic container complete with flowers and candles and was used as the tea table centerpiece. This award must be won three consecutive flower shows for permanent possession. Mrs. Nicholson received a large pottery vase filled with flowers. Door prizes of golden arrangements, complete with containers were won by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse of Ione and Mrs. Harriet Shaw of Heppner.

Providing music during the afternoon were Mrs. Earl McKinney with her accordion, Mrs. Fred Hosking Jr. with vocal solos and Mrs. Smouse with her violin. Mrs. Cleo Drake was the accompanist.

Approximately 125 visitors viewed the 343 entries including horticulture arrangements, hobbies, antiques and novelties. Special note was taken of the butterfly arrangement in Marigolds contributed by the Lexington Garden club, two doll collection, a rock collection and a parakeet collection were of outstanding interest. Mrs. Omar Rietmann of Ione and Bonnie Hannan of Heppner contributed the dolls, the rock collection is a hobby of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Miller of Morgan and the parakeets are a hobby of Gerry White of Ione.

Winners of the various classes as judged by Miss Alma Rohman of Pendleton and Mrs. Mary Van Stevens of Heppner were as follows:

We've shortened our name because of the vastly greater territory served than when we started in 1932... but there's been no change in ownership or management.

We've completed an eight-year modernization program by purchasing 59 new pieces of equipment. Included are Kenworth diesel cab-over-engine tractor units... new 24-foot Utility trailers... new 40-foot Utility semi-trailers. We've also modernized terminal and office facilities in all principal cities we serve.

With bigger and better Sites Freightlines equipment rolling over the new water-level highway into eastern Oregon, service to all points on our routes is faster and more efficient than ever. But our personal interest in shippers' problems remains the same!
