THIRTY YEARS AGO

From Files of the Gazette Times, October 9, 1924

The regular city election occurs on November 4th, the same day as the general election. The retiring mayor and councilmen were prevailed upon to run again and during the week the petition of E. G. Noble for mayor, Chas. Thomson, L. E. Bisbee and M. D. Clark, councilmen, were filed. W. A. Richardson is candidate for recorder to succeed himself, and W. O. Dix is in running again for city treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barlow will leave for Portland on Sunday, expecting to visit in that city and at Centralia, Washington.

Rev. E. C. Alford, newly appointed pastor of the M. E. church arrived with Mrs. Alford on Thursday last and has taken charge of the work, preaching his first sermon on Sunday.

About 30 members of the Epworth League of Heppner were delightfully entertained at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wightman on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn were in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers visited in Pasco last week with Mr. Adah Perry, city clerk of Pasco. Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Perry also visited in Steptoe and Colfax with relatives.
