COLLEEN BAILEY BRIDE OF HARVEY WRIGHT AT SUNDAY CEREMONY HERE

Pink gladioli and deeper pink carnations were on the altar at the Heppner Methodist church Sunday when Colleen Rae Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bailey, became the bride of Harvey Dean Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer Wright. Rev. Lester Boulden performing the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported white rose point gown with a shoulder length net veil caught to her dark hair with a close fitting cap trimmed with pearls. She carried a white Bible with white rose buds.

Donna Hudson, only attendant for the bride, wore purple velvet and carried light pink gladioli.

Best man for his brother was James Wright and ushers were Charles Bailey, brother of the bride, Delmer Jordan and Jack Marshall. Charles Bailey also lighted the candles.

Mrs. Lester Boulden presided at the organ and accompanied James Wright as he sang. At Dawning and Donna Hudson when she sang, Always.

The bride's mother wore light blue with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom's mother was dressed in royal blue with pink accessories and a rosebud corsage.

At the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer Wright for the wedding party and relatives, Mrs. Madge Bryant cut the wedding cake assisted by Donna Hudson. Mrs. Delmer Jordan poured and Mrs. James Wright presided at the punch bowl. Pink carnations were used throughout the rooms.

For going away the bride chose a raspberry knit suit with lizard trimmed accessories.

After October 18 the couple will be at home in the Henry Rauch apartment in Heppner.
