

Heppner Takes League Win from Maupin 13-6

By Larry Mollahan

Two pass interceptions did the trick last Friday afternoon for the Mustangs against Maupin as Heppner came off the field with a 13 to 6 victory. This being a league game for the Mustangs it was a do or die affair. Moro is the only other contender for the District 6-B crown.

Lyle Jensen and Ed Brosnan were the heroes of the day for Heppner. After a scoreless first quarter, the second was started with a bang as the Redshirts let go with a long pass only to have Lyle Jensen, who was playing linebacker, zip across and pick the ball out of midair and race 42 yards to the west endzone. The try for point was unsuccessful.

Coming back from halftime both teams were slow getting started on offense neither team getting past 25 in either direction. The big quarter for Ed Brosnan started badly for Heppner with Maupin running 40 yards in 3 plays to score. The conversion failed and left the tied 6 all until Brosnan, a lineman no less, picked the ball out of space on a short pass and brought the crowd to their feet as he took advantage of some key blocks and galloped

48 yards to paydirt. A pass from Deane Connor to Dick Kononen served to tally the extra point.

Casualties

Lyle Jensen team co-captain pulled a muscle in his shoulder and is going to be out for the rest of the season. Taking over at his post at quarterback will be Deane Connor. Larry Mollahan, fullback is out for two weeks with a cracked ankle.

The next game will be with Grant Union at John Day.

SMOKE, BUT NO FIRE

Heppner firemen answered an alarm Wednesday morning to the James Hager residence of S. Chase street but found everything under control when they arrived. A trash burner was putting up a big smoke which the wind whipped around a barn on the property giving it the appearance of being on fire.

EXAMINER COMING

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Heppner at the court house between 9:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Bob and Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Becker were Portland visitors over the weekend.

Church Dinner To Be Given For Bakers

All Saints Episcopal church will have a potluck dinner in the parish house directly after church Sunday October 24, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker of Kennebec, who left Heppner during the summer to make their home in the Washington city. There will be invited guests from Kennebec here and all members of the church are urged to attend.

Former Local Gridder Wins Praise of Pacific U. Coach

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove—Gary Connor, junior end from Heppner, played one of the finest games of his career at the Pacific university Saturday night as the Badgers bowed to the Willamette Bearcats 12-7.

Connor was credited by Pacific coach Paul Stagg as being one of the important factors in the Badger's surprisingly strong showing against the Bearcats, who are undefeated in conference play. Connor consistently turned back dangerous end sweeps by the speedy Bearcat backs, forcing Willamette to try the center of the line, where the Badger defenders were having one of their best nights of the year.

Even though Pacific played without the services of ace quarterback Danny French, who was put out of action early in the game with a knee injury, the Badgers led Willamette 7-6 until late in the fourth quarter and were threatening again as time ran out.

Connor is certain to be in the starting lineup Saturday when Stagg takes his Badgers to Caldwell, Idaho to meet the dangerous College of Idaho Coyotes. The Coyotes are tied with Willamette for the Northwest Conference lead but the spirited Badgers may surprise them.

Heppner Picked For "Caesar" Showing

Heppner has been selected by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures as one of the first localities of its size to see the famous production of "Julius Caesar". This much-honored picture which has had tremendous success in the larger cities, in both its advanced and general admission showings, will play a two-day engagement at the Star Theater on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 2nd and 3rd.

"Julius Caesar" is creating a sensation in show business because it is the first Shakespearean movie that has become a popular, mass-appeal hit. Being an exciting story of intrigue and the overthrow of a dictator, "Julius Caesar" has exciting entertainment qualities. Every member of its notable cast—James Mason, John Gielgud, Marlon Brando, Deborah Kerr, Greer Garson, Louis Calhern and Edmund O'Brien—turns in an expert performance.

"Julius Caesar" has already become one of Hollywood's most honored pictures. It was awarded "best picture of the year" by the National Board of Review, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the N. J. Association of Teachers of English and many other groups. The British Film Academy awarded its "Oscars" to Brando (Mark Antony) and Gielgud (Cassius) for their wonderful performances.

Further Cuts Seen In Wheat Income By OSC Economist

Further cuts in Oregon farmers' incomes from wheat—already down sharply from last year and the year before—seem almost certain, says M. D. Thomas, extension agricultural economist at Oregon State college.

Production controls and price support provisions of the present federal farm law could result in the 1956 crop bringing little more than half as much as the record 1952 crop and at least one-fifth less than was expected from 1954 production, the economist explains.

Regardless of what happens to supplies, wheat supports almost certainly will never again provide the purchasing power they have made possible in recent years, Thomas continues. By 1960, support prices for wheat could be around 70 cents a bushel under the 1954 level if conditions remain as they are now.

The new 1954 Agricultural Act, much like the 1949 act, permits wheat supports to drop as low as 75 percent of parity. It also provides for a gradual shift from the "old" to the "new" method of figuring parity. The new method lowers the parity price about 15 percent but is limited to steps of 5 percent a year.

Dr. Harold F. Hollands, research economist in the OSC department of agricultural economics, is now heading a comprehensive study of the wheat industry in the Pacific Northwest. The first phase, just being completed, aims to determine the present status of the wheat industry, changes which have occurred since 1909 and reasons why the industry is in its present position.

The second phase of Dr. Hollands' study, now underway, concerns an appraisal of programs aimed at solving problems of the nation's wheat industry. The economic soundness and general acceptability of each program to the nation's wheat farmers and city dwellers will be considered.

Among plans being studied are the flexible price plan, the fixed price support plan, and the two price or certificate plan. The certificate plan was approved by the house of representatives but not the senate at the last session of Congress.

Insurance Checks For Old Age Upped

When the monthly old-age and survivors insurance checks are delivered on schedule Monday, Oct. 4 all retired persons and all families on the rolls will find their payments increased. These increases, which range from very modest amounts to individual members of some families, up to as much as $31.50 to some widows with several children, result from the 1954 Amendments to the Social Security Act, signed into law by President Eisenhower on September 1. All the six-and-a-half-million people receiving monthly social security payments will benefit from the changes, said Vernon A. Welo, manager of the social security district office in La Grande.

The new payment rates are for the month of September. At the time the August checks were delivered, about September 3, every beneficiary received notice of the forthcoming increases, with caution that he needed to take no action to secure the higher pay-

Brands Unrecorded By December 31 To Be Cancelled

The state department of agriculture will cancel all livestock brands not renewed December 31, officials warned this week. The five-year re-recording of brands has been in progress since July 1. Up to mid-September 9000 of the 19000 brands on the book had been re-recorded. Since then, re-recordings have fallen off.

Brands considered abandoned after December 31 will be available to other applicants, as stipulated in the state brand recording law.

The department also advises that only brands, on record as of January 1 will be included in the 1955 edition of the Oregon livestock brand book. Brands recorded after that date will appear in the first supplement scheduled for mid-1956.

The department's division of animal industry, which handles the re-recording, says a surprising number of horse brands are being renewed. About 8000 horse brands were on the books on June 30. Officials expected this number to drop considerably because horse population has declined at least 12,000 head since 1950. (The January 1, 1954, livestock inventory counted 50,000 horses on Oregon farms.)

Officials figured if horse brand registrations dropped materially, this would release many irons for cattle brands. While horse brands will be down some, they won't be down as much as originally anticipated.
