

Ione Cub Pack Prepares Exhibit On Conservation

By Echo Palmateer

"Musical Hoe" down was the theme of the Cub Pack meeting in the Community church basement Wednesday evening Oct. 27. Jimmy Howton was dressed as Smoky, the symbol of the Forest Service for the prevention of fire, greeted the parents and invited them to see the conservation exhibit that the boys had made. These included type of soils and a demonstration by Stephen Lindstrom of soil erosion; attraction for birds, made by Jerry Davidson and Junior Allen; firebugs by Jimmy Howton; wild life by Jimmy Donahugh. Ronnie Crabtree and Ralph Martin read the outdoor code.

The Cubs explained and demonstrated the use of their home made instruments. They played and sang Home on the Range and God Bless America under their leader Jerry Davidson with Ronnie Crabtree playing the Pogo stick made at den meetings and Ralph Martin playing his water filled bottle instrument.

"Cubs in Pack" a sound movie provided interesting to the 28 people in attendance.

At a short parent meeting, Rev. Alfred Shirley explained the parents responsibility for building character by following the cub scouting program. Mrs. Roy Lindstrom and Mrs. Milton Morgan served cookies and cider. The cubs decorated the rooms with corn stalks, pumpkins and Halloween figures. Musical chairs was played by all.

GET REDDY—
GO ALL ELECTRIC!

Lady, if he can't take a hint,
come right out and tell him

you want an

ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER

Tell him how tired you are of lugging and stooping, stretching and pinning, *hanging up wet clothes every washday! Go ahead—tell him!

Tell him how a dryer can cut your ironing time in half because clothes come out so soft, fluffy and wrinkle-free, many pieces can be put away without ironing—giving you more time to spend with him. Tell him, too, it's an automatic electric dryer you want, because they're better in so many ways. Go ahead, tell him—bet he'll buy you one!

And don't forget to mention that your whole week's washing is dried for just a few pennies in an electric dryer! Electricity is today's biggest bargain!
