McKAY VISITS SALEM

"How can some people say this election was a crack at our power policy when in the states of Oregon, Washington, Nevada, and California when almost all the candidates supporting that policy won re-election?", said Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay in Salem Sunday when discussing the recent election.

"That doesn't indicate repudiation to me", he added. The Secretary said the administration plans no major changes in its power program despite slight Democratic majorities in Congress.

McKay came to Salem between official commitments to spend the day with his daughters and grandchildren. He and Mrs. McKay will be in Salem in December to spend Christmas.

RECOUNT IMPROBABLE

Cordon workers are trying to get a statewide recount of the Neuberger-Cordon vote for the U. S. Senate. So far they lack the necessary evidence to start the required suits which are required in each of the 36 counties.

"Fraud or error must be shown when the loser goes into court demanding a recount", says David O'Hara, head of the state Election Division.

The official count will be announced about December 1. Any suits demanding a recount would have to be filed by December 3.

Senator Guy Cordon won't give up. Unseasoned to defeat he reckons if what happened in Linn County were to happen in 28 other counties he would win, official count in Linn shaved 72 votes from Senator Richard Neuberger's lead.

TAX REFUNDS REFUSED

Now anything can happen. A personal income tax refund check for $15 was returned to the State Tax Commission in Salem this week by a Portland man and wife with the following letter:

"With all deference to the State Tax Commission in the interest of a balanced budget we endorse this check back to the state."

Heppner Serviceman On Japan Leave

CAMP HAKATA, JAPAN—Pvt. Floyd E. Green, 21 son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Green, Heppner, Oregon, recently spent a seven-day rest and recreation leave from his unit in Korea at Camp Hakata, on Japan's southernmost island of Kyushu.

Sight-seeing and extensive entertainment facilities at the camp provided him with a welcome break in the task of maintaining security on the Korean peninsula.

Geary, in Salem this week to preside over the legislative interim committee on highways, announced that he has more than the 31 votes necessary to make him speaker.

As a member of the House since 1949, Geary has had a leader in taxation and highway legislation in the three past sessions and was prominently mentioned for high state office in two campaigns.

SAFETY CONFERENCE DATED

The governor's sixth annual Safety Conference will be held in Portland November 18-19.

The conference will include sections on logging, sawmilling, plywood, log hauling, petroleum, chemical, government, automotive, food processing and utilities.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN OREGON

There were 30,400 jobless persons in Oregon in October compared with 26,000 a year ago. The State Unemployment Compensation Commission said that half of the jobless were in the Portland area.

Payments to the jobless totaled $1,068,935 in October. That was slightly less than in September, but was 19 per cent more than a year ago.

Payments in the first ten months this year totaled $20,406,950, just a shade less than the record set for the entire year of 1950.

VOTING GADGET NIXED

A voter in Lane county refused to vote by the voting machine so judges reportedly gave him a pencil and a ballot. Afterwards it occurred to him that his was the only paper ballot cast and all election clerks knew just how he voted.

WHAT MORE GAME FISH?

The stream clearance and trash fish riddance programs recently adopted by the State Game Commission are producing results. Salmon and steelhead are showing up in places they haven't been seen for some time.

In recent months streams such as the Siletz, Yachats, Yaquina, Salmon and Lewis and Clarke on the coast have undergone stream clearance operations with the logging industry cooperating wholeheartedly.

HIGHWAY BUDGET DOWN

The State Highway Commission will request the 1955 legislature to approve a budget that is five million dollars less than this year's $72,896,000.

The commissioners have decided.
