Social Happenings

One Maranatha Club Has Installation
At Troedson Home

An impressive candlelight installation ceremony was held for the officers of the Maranathas at a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Verner Troedson.
Mrs. E. M. Baker was the installing officer and was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Matthews. Mrs.
Baker told of the work of the club which was organized about ten years ago for the purpose of aiding the Community church, name of the group means The Lord Cometh. Some of the projects of the club besides helping the church are the annual Mother-Daughter banquet or tea, serving breakfast at Easter and serving a lunch to families at funerals.

Those installed were Mrs. Milton Morgan, president; Mrs. Marion Palmer, vice president; Mrs.
Garry Tullis, secretary-treasurer.
Mrs. Morgan gave out the year books and chose the following committees: fancy work, Mrs.
Noel Dobyns, Mrs. Grace Ware and Mrs. Dale Ray; cards, Mrs.
Echo Palmateer; relief, Mrs. Wallace Matthews; membership, Mrs.
Palmer and Mrs. Berl Akers; flowers for the church, Mrs.
Troedson, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, and Mrs. O. L. Lundell; aprons, Mrs. Ida Coleman, Mrs. Harvey Ring and Mrs. Morgan.
Mrs. Alfred Shirley assisted Mrs.
Troedson with the refreshments.

Lex Garden Club

Lodge Convention Held in Heppner

The district convention of the Degree of Honor was held in Heppner October 26 with delegates from The Dalles, John Day, Pendleton, Baker and Portland attending.
After a luncheon served at noon in the Oddfellows hall, the afternoon session was opened by president Theta Stratton with an address of welcome. J. O. Turner also welcomed the convention on behalf of the city.

The following National and State officers were introduced, Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, national committeewoman and state director; Mrs. Irene Scott, John Day, state president; Mrs. Anna Speckerman, The Dalles, state vice president; Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Portland, state secretary; Mrs. Blanche Buckley, Portland, past state president.

At the close of the afternoon the Junior Degree of Honor gave a demonstration of their ritualistic work.

A banquet was held in the evening at the Christian church, the tables being decorated with Morrow County wheat and at each place a corsage of wheat tied with fall colored ribbons.
During the banquet, Sandra Jones gave a reading, Carolyn McDaniel played several piano selections and Jay Stratton gave a reading.

Initiation by the John Day lodge was held at the evening session, with seven candidates being initiated. A program of drill teams from the various lodges, addresses from the visiting officers, a vocal solo by Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr. accompanied a tableau.

Twenty five year pins were presented to several members.

The Heppner Square Dance club entertained with a few numbers after which gifts were given the visiting officers.

A coffee hour was held at the close of the meeting.

Past Presidents Honored By Lodge

The Degree of Honor met for past president's night November 9.

As the past presidents were recognized, each told of interesting incidents which took place during her term of office.

Members voted to dispense with the annual Thanksgiving dinner this year because of the recent convention held here.

Following the meeting, Mary Ann Jensen and Marilyn Bergstrom were in charge of the entertainment. Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Theta Stratton and Genevieve Springer

message to the people and we wish to thank him, as well as the two people in the community who responded by giving us quilt pieces. We are carrying the project through November hoping to get more response. This not only helps unfortunate people, but helps us earn our requirements for Wood Gatherers rank and Fire Makers rank as well as adding hours to our service record.
At present we are planning to do No. 7 in our Fire Makers rank.
This is a dinner which we prepare and serve.

SEASONINGS?

Do seasons or weather sort of Seem to regulate your life?
Most of the men will all maintain
"That's handled by the wife!"
Bet cleaning up of house & yard
Has kept you on the hop!
With winter weather you'll transfer
To basement or workshop!
Now's the time to check that shop
And save yourself from worry!
After a fire has started there—It's far too late to hurry.

Clean out waste and oily rags; Odd paints you'll never use!
Check wiring to be sure it's safe Before you blow that fuse!

Check your insurance to be sure those Shop Tools & Equipment are covered!
