Little Janice found many things in the Penney toyland that she would like to find under her tree on Christmas morning. (GT Photo)

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Barbara Prock

The senior class is planning on keeping the traditional "H" on the hill by doing the "H" in concrete. Construction is to begin November 28.

Members of the journalism class are having a very busy time the past weeks by publishing a paper November 18 and one to be published November 30.

To start a good succession of school dances the "Twirl Twirl" sponsored by the Sophomore class was a success.

home without their meat as it is too warm for the elk to come out.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson were in town early Monday morning on business.

Miss Jessie Matteson was an overnight visitor at the home of Judy Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Bailey of Heppner, spent Sunday here with their daughter, Mrs. Ernie Johnson.

Miss Sandra Settle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Settle, was on the sick list but is feeling better.

Quill and Scroll members, Larry Mollahan, Mary Green, Sally Palmer, Lillian Elde, Joan Wright and Barbara Prock were honored with a buffet dinner November 6 given by their advisor, Mrs. Joyce Wilkinson. Their guests were John Brosnan, Lyle Jensen, Pete Slocum, Sharon Bryant, Lynda Eorman, Patsy Wright and Clarice Hastings. Pete Andresen was unable to attend.

Heppner high school boys getting their elk were Oliver Devin, Jerry Haguewood and Delbert Piper.

The junior class play "Don't Ever Grow Up" brought in approximately $200.00 on all three performances.

Thanksgiving holiday brings cheers from the students because of the two-day vacation.
