This week with two jamborees and one home game will mark the beginning of basketball season for the Heppner Mustangs.

The winning of the District 6B Championship the last two years will present a challenge to this year's team and their new basketball mentor, Larry Bowen.

Losing only two starters by graduation last year, Bill Hughes and Jim Green, the Mustangs this year are at the peak of their power.

A large group of seniors are leading the group of twenty-five boys turning out, they are: Dick Kononen, Jerry Hagewood, Lyle Jensen, Neil Beamer, Bob Grabill, and Jim Hayes. A large turnout of juniors included Skip Rhul, Del Piper, John Piper, Ed Olson, Vic Groshens, Lowell Turner, Jim Monahan, Lance Tibbles, Vern Keithley. The sophomores showed up with six aspiring players; Dick Applegate, Louie Sayers, Jay Hudson, Roy Hughes, Deane Connor and Dee Baily. A small group of rooks included Roger Harris, Tim Carr, Jim Morris, and Ed

Groshens.

Practice sessions began Nov. 15 and continued through Thanksgiving vacation so the team could be in good shape.

The two jamborees are at Boardman Wednesday night and Arlington Friday night. The first regular game of the season will be against the Stanfield Tigers on the Mustangs home floor Saturday evening. The B game will be at seven.

Penney Co. Again Gives Special Bonus

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—J. C. Penney company, nation-wide department store organization, announced today that its directors have authorized a special year-end payment for more than 50,000 associates in the company's 1639 stores, offices and warehouses throughout the United States.

The payment will be an amount equal to two weeks' pay for all fulltime associates who have been employed for the full year 1954, and proportionate amounts for extra and part time associates and those employed less than a year.

All Penney associates will share in the payment except management staff members whose earnings are determined largely by the company's long-standing profit-sharing plan. It will be made December 15.

Miss Phyllis Fry of Miles City, Montana and Miss Sharon Becket both of whom are attending Dental Assistant's School in Seattle were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket over the Thanksgiving weekend.

ELWAYNE ZERBA

PP&L Man Promoted To Sales Engineer

Promotion of Elwayne Zerba to commercial and industrial sales engineer for the Pendleton district of Pacific Power & Light company has been announced by Tom Keenan, district manager.

Pendleton is rapidly becoming a manufacturing center on the Pacific Power system and Zerba will help industry in the use of electrical information to industry wishing to locate in the Pendleton area.

In the lighting field Zerba will help develop comfortable and pleasant plant and store lighting to increase sales production and safety.

Zerba a native of Athena, has served as field engineer for the Pacific Power since his graduation as an electrical engineer from Washington State college in 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drake had as their guests over the weekend, her niece an husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furno of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warren spent the Thanksgiving weekend visiting his parents at Winchester bay, Oregon.

Alcoholics Anonymous Meet at Pendleton

"The alcoholic, who is he?" will be the question to be answered at an open forum scheduled for the Vert Memorial auditorium, Pendleton, on Saturday evening, December 4 at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Pendleton group of Alcoholics Anonymous.

A panel of three will be headed by Gordon Ramey, special lecturer on the staff of the Oregon alcohol education committee, an organization created by special act of the state legislature. He will be seconded by Dr. Edward M. Scott, psychologist, teacher and author of the new novel "Harvest Time", published by Pageant Press of New York. Dr. Scott will present the problem of alcoholism from the clinical point of view. The position of religion in treating alcoholics will be aired by Rev. John Martin, rector of the Episcopal church of St. John, Hermiston.

Representatives from the A. A. groups in Seattle, Portland, La-Grande, Spokane, and Walla Walla will all contribute to the general discussion following the presentations of the speakers.

This open forum is the first of its kind to be presented in this area. It represents the cooperative effort of many organizations which are vitally interested in the treatment of alcoholism as a disease—a disease affliction more than 3,000,000 people in the U.S. today.
