

Social Activities Numerous at Lone During Past Week

By Echo Palmateer

The past week was filled with many social activities in lone and community. Starting Tuesday Dec. 6 with an American Legion Auxiliary meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Dobyns with Mrs. G. Hermann as co-hostess. At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Delmer Crawford, president, the unit decided to give $5 to the Veteran's hospital in Walla Walla. To promote attendance the group has been divided into two units, one headed by Mrs. Cecil Thorne and one by Mrs. John Eubanks. The group having the best attendance record at the meetings will be entertained by the losing group.

Mrs. Berl Akers and Mrs. Wallace Matthews entertained the Maranatha club at the Akers home Wednesday Dec. 8 with a turkey dinner at noon and refreshments in the afternoon. At the business meeting led by Mrs. Milton Morgan, president, the club voted to send a CARE package to a foreign country and to send money to the Children's Farm home in Corvallis. The members also discussed getting dossal curtains for the Community church. Fancy work will be sold the year around at the Noel Dobyns home.

At the P-TA meeting at the school house Wednesday evening Dec. 8 Lloyd Howton and Fredrick Martin gave reports on future school legislation that they heard discussed at a school meeting in Condon recently. Mrs. L. A. McCabe presented a pantimime, And Came Christmas, with the following cast. Mrs. Bryce Keene, Mrs. Gordon White, Mrs. Lloyd Howton and Mrs. C. E. Brenner. Mrs. McCabe was the reader.

At the business meeting Ray Heimbigner gave the lunch room report. Mr. Howton told of the ball games here Dec. 17 and 18 the proceeds of which will go to the P-TA and it was voted to give treats to all at the annual program Dec. 22. Refreshments were served from Tables decorated in the Christmas motif by Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. Phil Emert, Mrs. Donald Heliker, Mrs. Donald Linnell, Mrs. Herman Blettell, and

Mrs. John Eubanks.

The Garden club members met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Heliker Thursday Dec. 9 and made Christmas decorations which are placed in the Swanson store window to be sold. A sack lunch was served at noon.

Mrs. Roy Lindstrom entertained the Topic club at the study meeting at her home Friday Dec. 10 with Mrs. Norman Nelson and Mrs. E. R. Lundell as co-hostesses. Mrs. Nelson showed her slides on the Country Women of the World convention which she attended at Toronto, Canada last year. She also gave a very interesting talk on her trip there.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews entertained the Three Links club of Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge at her home Saturday with a dinner at noon. At the business meeting the following officers were elected and installed for the coming year: Mrs. Fannie Griffith, chairman; Mrs. Wate Crawford, vice chairman; Mrs. E. R. Lundell, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Mary Swanson was outgoing chairman and also, the installing officer. She presented the club with a coffee pot. Mrs. Griffith chose the following as her helpers: Mrs. Cleo Drake, marshal; Mrs. Echo Palmateer, chaplain; Mrs. Ernest Heliker, guardian; Mrs. Cecil Thorne, relief; Mrs. Wallace Matthews, fancy work and Mrs. Adon Hamlett, aprons. The club voted to give two $10 CARE packages to the I. O. O. F. committee.

A large crowd attended the pot luck dinner at the Rebekah hall Sunday evening. Movies were shown by Milton Morgan after the dinner. A silver offering was given to the I. O. O. F. Home in Portland. The hall was decorated with a Christmas tree and other Christmas decorations.

A Christmas party was given to the lower classes in the Community Sunday school Saturday afternoon in the basement of the church. Santa Claus treated them to candy canes, movies were shown, carols were sung and refreshments were served by the following teachers: Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. David Rietmann, Mrs. A. A. Stefani, Mrs. Delmer

Crawford, Mrs. Earl McCabe and Mrs. Charles O'Connor.

Mrs. E. M. Baker held a 4-H cooking meeting at her home on Saturday. After the meeting a Christmas party was held.

The Valby Lutheran church Missionary society held their annual Christmas Caroling party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell Sunday afternoon. The following children presented a program of recitations, songs, group singing and piano numbers: John, Carol, and Tim Rawlins, Kerry and Kristine Peterson, Ralph Jordan, Jerry and Teresa Steffani, Ronnie and Molly Beckett, Linda and Tommy Heimbigner and Karen and Cheryle Lundell.

Leo Crabtree, Cub Scout master, conducted a Bobcat ceremony for Jerry Davidson and Junior Allen to whom Bobcat pins were presented at a pack meeting Thursday Dec. 9 at the Community church basement. Jimmy Donahugh received his Bobcat pin before he moved from town last week. All Scouts received their Pack and Den numerals for their uniforms.

The theme, Adventures in History, was worked out by Den one by telling about Admiral Byrd's second expedition to Antarctica as recorded by Paul Syle, a boy scout who acted as biologist on his second trip with Admiral Byrd. The boys made background scenery of icebergs for their dog sledge made by them and pulled by 4 boys, Ralph Martin, Jerry Davidson, Ronnie Crabtree, Jimmy Howton, Junior Allen also in fitting costume, drove the sledge which was constructed by the boys under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin.

Songs were sung and games played which were led by committee chairman Joe Hausler. Other committeemen present were Roy Lindstrom and Rev. Alfred Shirley.

Mrs. Hausler was secured as Mother for Den two filling the vacancy made by Mrs. Claude Riley who moved to Tacoma. The next Den meeting will be Thursday, Jan. 6 at the homes of the mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker spent a few days last week in Pullman, Wash., where Mr. Baker attended a short stockman's course in the college there. They also visited their son Roland, a student there. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Strodtman of Arlington spent last week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McMillan. Holmes Gabbert of Portland was a weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews.
