

Lexington Church, Sunday School Names New Officers

By Delpha Jones
Thursday night the Lexington Christian and Congregational Sunday School and church held their annual meeting at the church. The main business of the Sunday school was the election of a new superintendent to replace Franklin Messenger who handed in his resignation, as his work keeps him from fulfilling his position. Mrs. Douglas Price of Hepner was elected to fill the vacancy, and Don Campbell of Lexington as assistant superintendent.

The Xmas treats were discussed and a committee appointed to take care of this, and the white gift collection was discussed and decided to sponsor gifts for the Christian church orphanage in Boise, with the children bringing their gifts next Sunday morning. It was also announced that the Sunday school Christmas program will be held next Sunday evening.

The meeting was presided over by the assistant superintendent, Mrs. Douglas Price.

The church meeting was called to order by the chairman, L. G. Wetzel, minutes were read and approved. Election was announced for the next meeting and the chairman will appoint a nominating committee. Mr. Earl Kendall, who serves as an elder, resigned his position as he is moving to Ukiah. He will be greatly missed as he and his family have served faithfully, also serving as Sunday school superintendent.

After the meeting adjourned refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Vernon Munkers and Mrs. Kenneth Peck.

Mrs. George Irvin entertained with a small party Sunday evening honoring her daughters Vickie and Valda's birthdays. Refreshments of ice cream and cake and coffee were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and son and Miss Eileen Breeding, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Cornillon and family have moved to Dufur where Mr. Cornillon is employed. They moved down Sunday.

The primary class of the Sunday school was entertained by their teacher Mrs. C. C. Jones and assistant teacher Mrs. Franklin Miles on Thursday night at the Jones home. The work sheets of this quarter were finished, a nativity scene colored and cut out and some Xmas tree decorations were made. Later refreshments were served to 19 youngsters.

Sunday morning at the Sunday school hour the church and Sunday school presented the Earl Kendall family with a farewell gift which was presented by Mrs. Don Campbell. Sunday evening, following services a farewell "get-together" was enjoyed, with different members furnishing refreshments served by Mrs. Don Campbell, and Mrs. C. C. Jones assisted by members of the congregation. An hour of fellowship was enjoyed.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt is spending a few days in The Dalles with her sister Mrs. Percy Connor, who underwent major surgery in that city one day last week.

Pendleton visitors last week were Mrs. and Mr. Dean Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Ledbetter and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson.

Lexington grange met Saturday night with the Master Charles C. Jones in the chair. Initiation of the 3rd and 4th degrees were given at this time to members of the Rhea Creek and Lexington granges with those from Lexington being Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell. Following the meeting songs were sung, and Santa came with treats to the children and refreshments were later served in the basement.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Edwards-Way V. F. W. Post 6098 met Thursday night for their regular business meeting. Two candidates were given the obligation, Barbara Cutsforth and Maxine Lee Cox. The Post and Auxiliary are helping sponsor Boys' Town near White Salmon, Washington and are making up gift boxes of clothing, towels, or anything boys can use. They are also making several pieced quilts to be sent to the boys.

The post has obtained the use of the Congregational church in which to meet and are getting it in shape by putting in a Flamo stove in the kitchen and also new linoleum. As soon as possible rest rooms will be built.

The auxiliary plans to entertain the District Officers on Jan. 13, 1955.

The V. F. W. and Ione Legion sponsored a dance for Boys Town and $108.00 was sent to the home. Denny McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMillan, is home on furlough from the Coast Guard where has completed basic training. He will leave for the east coast Dec. 22.

The Lexington P-TA met in the school auditorium with about 40 persons present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Bates. Franklin Messenger was appointed Cub scout master and Harold Beech as institutional representative. The year's budget was approved by the group.

Following the meeting Billy, Stephen and Kenny Klinger gave a piano trio selection, and Paula Borak a piano solo. Carols were sung by the group and an explanation of the origin of the songs was given.

Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and Mrs. L. G. Wetzel were hostesses for the evening.

The school Christmas program will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 22 at 8 p. m. and will be put on by the grade school with Mrs. Brent as general coordinator. There will be a three part program which will include the Nativity, toyland and a choral with Lawrence Brent in charge of the chorus. Everyone is invited to attend.

Room parties will be held on Thursday afternoon and school will be dismissed for the holidays on that day.

Ms. P. W. Mahoney and Mrs. Raymond Merguson left Wednesday for a few days in Portland.

Mrs. Ruth Reid and son Ronald were in Portland for the Thanksgiving holiday with another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Dunn.

4-H CLUB NEWS

BUNNY-CHICK CLUB

We held our first meeting on Friday, Dec. 3, 1954. We elected the following officers for our Rabbit and Poultry club.

President—Edna Hoffman; vice president—Mike Duncan; secretary—Lorelei Hamilton; News Reporter—Victor Peyrollaz; Song Leader—Kenny Peyrollaz; Pledge Leader—Jim Hoffman; Game Leader—Ted Hoffman.

We named our club "Bunny-Chick". Our club is a rabbit and poultry combined. We have 8 members in our club. Our members that have rabbits are Edna Hoffman, Mike Duncan, Victor Peyrollaz, Jim Hoffman, Ted Hoffman and Nancy Peyrollaz, who is our associate member. Our members that have chickens are Kenny Peyrollaz, and Lorelei Hamilton.

During the winter months our meetings will be held about once a month. All meetings will be at our leader's house, Mrs. A. Hamilton.

Victor Peyrollaz, reporter.

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Barbara Prock
The annual staff met their December deadline with forty-three pages instead of the required thirty-one.

The Heppner Volleyball girls deserve credit for their performances this year. Winning three out of four games from Ione, Stanfield and Lexington, losing only to Spray.

A membership drive has been started for F. B. L. A. Posters have been made with speeches to be given by Judie Spaulding, Shirley Kononen, James Monahan, and Pete Slocum in class meetings. Dr. E. K. Schaffitz, optometrist is the F. B. L. A. co-sponsor.

The classes have been serving the basketball squads refreshments after home games. They

Ione News

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely spent the weekend in Portland and Forest Grove.

Fredrick Martin spent Monday in Madras on business.

Word was received that Saymore Wilson, 80, died Nov. 26 at his home in Huntington Beach, Calif. He came to this community in 1884 and left for California several years ago. He is survived by his widow, Molly, and two sons, Earl of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Francis of Los Angeles, one brother Charles and one sister, Mrs. Iona Johnson both of Los Angeles. Martin Bauerfeind of Morgan is a nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyers of Portland are the parents of a daughter, Lynnann, born Dec. 7. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers of St. Louis, Mo. are the grandparents.

The Eldon Tuckers moved into their new home on Second street last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Janssen and family moved into the Claude Riley house on Third Street.

The Dalles visitors Saturday were Mrs. Omar Rietmann and have been holding sock dances after games. These dances are chaperoned by six parents and advisors. The students furnish a four-man police force to conduct the dances.

The Pep Club is more active this year, sponsoring pep assemblies with the support of the Band and cheerleaders. A pep talk is given by a Speaker either from school or down-town businessmen creating enthusiasm among the Heppner students.

Due to the injury of Francine Francis' back, new cheerleaders were elected to finish the school year after tryouts. Marilyn Petty, John, Nancy Anderson and Darlene Connor were elected.

The Journalism class has received their Oregon Scholastic Press Membership Directory. The Heppner Herald is mentioned in the OSP bulletin as having an unusual style of mimeographed paper on large sheets, folded down the middle similar to a standard printed newspaper.

Heppner Student in Christmas Concert son Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCabe and son John.

Mrs. E. R. Lundell, Mrs. Cleo Drake and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn spent one day last week in Walla Walla.

Those going to Pendleton Friday of last week were Mrs. Jessie Griffin, Mrs. Ruby Nichols, Mrs. Della Corson and Mrs. Lana Padberg.

Rollo Crawford spent a few days in Portland the first of the week.

Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom and sons Dick and Roland, were Portland visitors last week. Dick went to consult a physician in regard to his knee which was injured while playing football. He will undergo an operation on it after the first of the year.

Billy Lundell of Milwaukie was Oregon State College, Corvallis. —Ken Turner of Heppner was among more than 260 Oregon State college students who appeared in the annual Christmas concert sponsored by the OSC music department.

The program, which opened with a candlelight procession, consisted of selected carols of France, Germany, Spain, Czechoslovakia, and England. The traditional finale included familiar carols with the audience taking part.

visiting relatives here last week. Mrs. Leona Jackson has been quite ill at her home but is improving now.

Long Distance Nation-Wide Moving Service
Mayflower Agents
Padded Vans
Penland Bros. TRANSFER CO.
Pendleton, Oregon Phone 338

IONE P-TA BENEFIT
Basketball Game
Fri., Dec. 17—Ione vs Arlington
B Game Starts 7 P. M.
Sat., Dec. 18—Ione vs Condon
A Game 7 P. M.
IONE HIGH SCHOOL GYM

Lonely sentinel keeps your calls going through. This microwave radio-relay station overlooking San Francisco Bay is part of a chain that links the Pacific West with the East. Its job: to carry your long distance telephone calls and TV programs. And as it works, no human eye need watch it. For if trouble threatens, it automatically switches itself to stand-by equipment . . . so your calls keep going through. At the same time, an alarm alerts a testman on duty miles away. Frequently, he can tell what the trouble is—right from his desk. This is one more way we guard your service . . . while also keeping it low in price. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

The car is the '55 FORD with exciting new Trigger-Torque Power in 3 mighty engines . . . with fresh, new styling inspired by the Thunderbird . . . with smoother new Angle-Poised Ride.

See and Test Drive the totally new Ford we believe you, too, will agree that the car for '55 is Ford! Its styling was inspired by the Thunderbird—Ford's great personal car. And you can have this fresh, modern styling in your pick of 16 beautiful body styles.

You can choose from a broader range of body-color and upholstery combinations. You get the smoothest comfort ever from Ford's new Angle-Poised Ride that levels big and little bumps alike.

And for more thrilling, safer driving in today's traffic, Ford brings you new Trigger-Torque Power in three mighty engines: the 162-h.p. Y-block V-8—the 182-h.p. Y-block Special V-8 (offered with Fordomatic in Fairlanes and Station Wagons)—and the 120-h.p. I-block Six.

New '55 Ford Fairlane Town Sedan . . . built expressly for those who wish to combine sleek, modern beauty with full comfort and thrilling power.

The time is NOW!

Come in and see how easy it is to own a 1955 Ford. Enjoy the satisfaction of driving a totally new car this winter.

We cordially invite you to come in to see and Test Drive the new '55 Ford. And if you get a yen to drive one home, as so many people do, let us show you how easily you can . . . with a generous allowance on your present car and terms to suit your convenience. It makes mighty good sense to trade now . . . so you can have the extra pleasure and peace of mind all winter long, of driving this great new Ford that's built to take you through the winter weather more safely, more pleasantly.

MAKE IT A FORD THIS CHRISTMAS
A new Ford "on your Christmas tree" will make a thrilling gift for the whole family . . . one that everyone will enjoy throughout the year. Ask your family how they like this idea. Bet you they say "Yes!"

Why not take your Test Drive now!

Rosewall Motor Company

F.D.A.F.