New Religious Film, "John Wesley" to be Shown Here Sunday

The new motion picture "John Wesley" is coming to Heppner, and it will be shown at the Heppner Methodist church on Sunday, January 9 at 7:30 p. m., according to the pastor, Rev. L. D. Boulden.

The feature-length film is in the new Eastman color and was produced by the radio and film commission of the Methodist church in cooperation with J. Arthur Rank.

It brings to the screen for the first time the dynamic and colorful 18th century evangelist and educator.

John Wesley's miraculous rescue from a burning house at the age of five, at the beginning of the film, forecasts the dramatic and eventful life which unfolds in this story a man of slight stature but of impelling influence upon his contemporaries and upon history.

The English clergyman thought his venture in America as a missionary to the Indians in the Georgia colony was a failure, but it was the kind of failure which opened the door to the discovery of a religious certainty he had been seeking.

Furthermore, this discovery, in which John Wesley felt his "heart strangely warmed", led him to face mobs unafraid, and to ride 250,000 miles on horseback, changing the masses of English people from a low state of moral degradation to sturdy and happy uprightness.

The Rev. Mr. Boulden explained that while the film is being released only to Methodist churches during the initial period, the public is invited to see the picture at the Heppner Methodist church.
