

Lexington P-TA Holds Dad's Night

The Lexington P-TA held its regular meeting at the school house on Tuesday night with the meeting being called to order by president Mary Bates. After a most instructive meeting the program was enjoyed. This was "Dad's Night" and the dads took the main parts in the program. Melvin Bates was in charge of the program.

The following entertainment was enjoyed provided by the men "The Fatal Quest" with the following cast: king, Rev. Wetzel; queen, Leonard Munkers; duke, Melvin Bates; and the princess, Don Campbell and curtain Johnnie Ledbetter. Also enjoyed was a movie on glass blowing and later delightful refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

The Three Links Club met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Jones on Thursday afternoon with the president Mrs. Robert Davidson presiding. The main topic of business was the election of officers with Mrs. Eugene Majeske as president; and Freda Majeske as Sec. and Mrs. Earl Warner as Treas. At this time a finance committee was appointed with Mildred Davidson as chairman, and Florence Mc Millan, and a fancy work committee with Delpha Jones and Cora Warner being given this one. Refreshments were later served to Miss Dona Barnett, Mrs. Trina Parker, Mildred Davidson, Freda Majeske, Florence McMillan, Alice Majeske, Cora Warner and the hostess Delpha Jones. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Majeske.

The Lexington Christian and Congregational Sunday school and church held their regular meeting Thursday night at the church. At this time an election of officers was held with the following being elected: chairman of the church board, Don Campbell and Sec. Treas., Miss Dona Barnett. At this time the election of deacons, deaconesses and elders was held. The hostess for the evening was Mrs. L. G. Wetzel who served lovely refreshments in the church kitchen.

Eileen Breeding and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Breeding were Stanfield visitors on Thursday with Eileen going to the dentist in that city.

Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and Mrs. Carl Marquardt were Pendleton visitors on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding were Pendleton visitors on Wednesday.

Thursday evening the following members of the Odd Fellows lodge motored to Fossil where they attended the joint installation of officers of the Rebekah and Oddfellow Lodges of that city and at this time they watched a member of this lodge, Clay Phillips, receive his 25 year pin. Preceding the lodge meeting a dinner was served. The pin was given to him from this lodge but was presented by the N. G. of Fossil. Those attending from this lodge were Noble Grand, George Irvin; Sec., W. E. McMillan and Cecil Jones and James L. Davis.

The Amelita Club held its annual meeting and party at the Bernard Doherty home on Saturday of last week. A fresh crab supper with a most delicious dunk, side dishes, hot rolls and coffee was greatly enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bloodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright, Francis Doherty, Gertrude Applegate, Mr. and Mrs.

Don Hatfield, Harry Bell, Annetta Klinger, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty. High for men was won by E. E. Peck, second high Gar Leyva and traveling, men, Don Hatfield, high women, Emma Peck, second high, Lavonne Bloodworth, traveling women, Gladys Van Winkle; the door prize, Mildred Davidson.

Mr. C. R. Burgett of Wallowa has been visiting his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield entertained with a dinner at their home on Sunday with the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peck, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.

S. A. Denny McMillan visited his father J. F. McMillan and his sisters, Mrs. Colleen Wallis and Mrs. James Bloodworth and their families over the weekend from Port Angeles, Washington where he is stationed with the Coast Guards.

Mrs. Gladys Young was a business visitor in Portland last week. Mrs. Ina Nichols is confined to her home by illness this week.

A new Sunday school class has been organized with this being the third grade. Their teacher will be Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt. This class at present consists of 6 boys, who are Donny Van Winkle, Lee Padberg, Jules Wetzel, Danny Wardwell, Roger Schoonover, and Stephen Peck. They have been for the past 5 months in the primary class with Mrs. Jones as teacher, but due to the large number attending this class it had to be divided. This class and their teacher urge all who are eligible for this class to join them on Sundays.

The C. E. which for quite a number of weeks has been held on Monday nights, has been changed to Thursday night because of several of its members attend band lessons on Monday night.

O. W. Cutsforth is in Portland and Salem on business.

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Barbara Prock

Holding the position of class president for the second semester are senior class, Pete Slocum; junior class, Steve Green; sophomore class, Jay Dee Hudson; freshman class, Bob Laughlin. Elections were held before the Christmas vacation.

Condon "she devils" were pounced on by the Heppner Fillies in a volleyball game Friday evening coming out on the short end of 48-17 score.

One of the most clever pep assemblies this year was staged by the senior class before the Condon game. Five boy cheerleaders led the yells and the senior girls rendered a song, "Mr. Coachman" dedicated to the coach Larry Downen. Oliver Creswick, local business man was the guest speaker.

Semester exams are being given to Heppner students Jan 20 and 21. These tests last one hour and a half. Those not having classes are excused from the building or may remain in the study hall.

Vic Groshens has a 99 plus per cent accuracy in typing time writings, announced Mrs. Joyce Wilkinson, typing instructor. He has an average of 5/14 of an error in twenty-eight writings.

For the first time in five years the Hehisch will have printed pictures in their paper. Stencils are made from the pictures and they are run off on the mimeograph machine.

Benjamin Franklin, whose birthday is January 17, was expert in handling money and his advice is as found today as 200 years ago. All quotations here are from his booklet, "The Way To Wealth," published 1760.

Ben Franklin gives you some expert advice about Payroll Savings

"What though you have found no Treasure, nor has any rich Relation left you a legacy, Diligence is the Mother of Good Luck."

Have you ever wished you had $1,000, $5,000 or more—to buy a car, get a home, help you toward retirement? Today, it is actually easy to save such large sums! Because, today, you can have your saving done for you—with automatic diligence—through the Payroll Savings Plan.

"If you would have a faithful Servant, and one that you like, serve yourself."

Serving yourself means keeping some of the money you make each week and investing it, for yourself. Here's how: you just name a sum to your company's pay office—a few dollars or as much as you want. Each payday, that sum will be saved from your pay, before you get your check and invested for you in one of the world's finest investments, U. S. Series E Savings Bonds!

"Little Strokes fell great Oaks."

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest, they're soon worth more than the money you've invested in them. And how your savings mount up! Sign for as little as $5.00 a week and in 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $2,850 cash. In 19 years, 8 months, you'll have $6,872!

"One To-day is worth two To-morrows, and farther, Have you somewhat to do To-morrow, do it To-day."

For your own sake, don't put off joining the 8 million Americans who are making their dreams come true through Payroll Savings. Sign up for Payroll Savings today. Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Savings Bonds regularly where you bank. If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about 3% Series H Bonds which pay interest semiannually by Treasury check.

"Remember what Poor Richard says: Many a Little makes a Mickle."

The U. S. Government does not pay for this advertising. The Treasury Department thanks, for their patriotic donation, the Advertising Council and

Choose your own savings goal

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save.....	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save.....	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

When you need money... for unexpected expenses...

See First National for a low-cost Personal Loan

When you need emergency cash fast... see First National for a personal loan. You get quick, confidential service, and low bank rates. Next time you need a personal loan, see First National first!

FOR A MERRIE CHRISTMAS THIS YEAR — JOIN FIRST NATIONAL'S INTEREST-PAYING CHRISTMAS CLUB NOW!

Heppner Gazette Times