STREAMLINER BECOMES DOMELINER—Union Pacific which introduced the word "Streamliner" into the transportation field, has now stepped forward with the catchy name "Domeliner" to describe its finest, fastest transcontinental trains, soon to carry Astra-dome coaches, observation cars and dining cars. U. P.'s "City of Portland" carried its first Astra-dome coach on the Portland-Chicago run this week. Through the deliveries of five view-top coaches, five dome dining cars and five dome observation cars during the next three months, it will become the "Domeliner City of Portland". One each of these new-era cars will be carried on each of the five identical Domeliners in daily Portland-Chicago service.

4-H Club News

BUSY STITCHERS

The Busy Stitchers 4-H clothing club met at the home of Lynda Borman January 22.
 President Shirley Peck called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered by naming a president of the United States.

The club voted to buy for each member without one, a folder to hold our old record books.

Miss Beverly Bradshaw, acting County extension agent, presented to Janet Wright, her canning award she won at the County fair last year. She also gave each member a 4-H calendar for 1955.

Our next meeting will be February 5 at Sally Palmer's. Meredith Thomson, reporter
