

IONE School Notes

Chester L. Ward, Superintendent
We were very happy to have the Eastern Oregon College of Education freshmen here to play basketball with our team Thursday evening Jan. 27. While the score was against our boys they played a spirited and well played game. Congratulations to the E. O. C. E. Freshmen for their fine display of sportsmanship.

With the coming of Stanfield here Saturday evening, it was a very full evening. The grade school played in Heppner and lost by one point during the last few seconds of the game. This was an exhibition game for the March of Dimes. The lone high school won both games from Stanfield. This puts the local team in the running and are asured a place in the tournament at Umatilla the last of February. We are happy for the good support given the teams.

Achievement tests are being given in the school. Next week these tests will be given in the 7th and 8th grades and some in the high school.
The high school honor roll for the past nine weeks is as follows: Freshmen, Kay Sherer, Niel McKay, Grace McCabe, Ann Belle Coleman, and Mardine Baker. Sophomore: Julie Rietmann, Loy Keene, Sue Coleman, Judy Howton, Bill Salter. Juniors: Anna Jepsen, Seniors: Lawrence Jones, Malcolm McKinney, Denney Swanson, Dorothy Dobyns and Larry Rietmann.

Several seniors are planning to attend college this fall. Correspondence is now under way to get the proper application forms. Any parent interested in a college education for their children are free to consult the office at any time. Let me emphasize once again that good scholarship is a determining factor in a college education.
Look forward to Feb. 15 as Fun night sponsored by the senior class in the new gym.
