CAPITAL PARADE

former political writer of the Oregon Journal and has covered several sessions of the Oregon Legislature.

Herbert Hoover has been invited by unanimous vote of the Oregon Legislature to spend his 81st birthday at his boyhood home at Newberg, Oregon. The former president's birthday is August 10 when the restored Herbert Hoover home and Herbert Hoover Park will be dedicated. His uncle, Dr. H. J. Minthorn, with whom the young orphan Hoover lived, moved to Newberg, Oregon, in 1884 but soon moved to Salem. An effort to restore the Herbert Hoover home in Salem has been discussed. Burt Brown Barker, who has accomplished much in preserving and furnishing the Oregon shrines, led the movement in securing, refurbishing and furnishing the Herbert Hoover Home at Newberg.

LINE OF THE WEEK

"A lot of good people are foolish drivers."—State Police Sgt. Russell Haynes, reported by Don Lynch in Ontario Argus-Observer.

DEMOCRATS MUFF ONE

In the first weeks of this legislative session the Democrats had the majority control of the 1957 legislature in the bag and didn't know it.

When the controlling Republicans began legislation that would take from the voters the right to elect certain state officials and gave the governor the power to appoint them—that was the golden hour of silence for the Bourbons. Instead they attempted to retalliate by playing ante-verp in bills to make certain appointive officials elective.

Had the Democrats let the Republicans go ahead and take away the rights of the voters and give Gov. Patterson more appointive powers there would have been a glaring target of gubernatorial dictatorship for the offended voters to shoot at in the 1956 election campaign.

Morrow County, State of Oregon, EXECUTRIX of the estate of PERCY C. COX, deceased, and all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are hereby required to present same with proper vouchers duly verified to the Executrix at the office of Mahoney and Fancher, Heppner, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof.
