Conservation Contest Competition Told

AKRON, OHIO—Third annual national program to provide recognition of each state's outstanding soil conservation district and most cooperative farmer or rancher was announced last week at San Diego, Cal. by A. H. Settle, director of Soil Conservation awards program for Good-year Tire & Rubber Co.

Speaking on behalf of Good-year, sponsor of soil saving competitions for eight years, Settle told members of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, assembled at San Diego for their annual meeting, that the Akron rubber firm's second annual program ends on April 30 and the new program begins on May 1.

Competition in the awards program is conducted on state levels. Judging is done by state committees of outstanding leaders in soil conservation. Goodyear provides awards to stimulate interest competitively in sound soil practices.

Grand award in the yearly contest is a vacation trip to Arizona's luxurious Winter resort, the Wigwam, at Litchfield Park, each December. Winners receive also bronze plaques at regional meetings of NASCD.

Arizona vacation trips go to one hundred of the nation's top soil conservationists, two from each of the 50 competing units. The Country is divided equally

John Partlow, Mrs. Roy Partlow, and Mrs. Bernice McCoy.

The next O. E. A. meeting will be in Boardman on March 14 at 6 p. m.

WHAT'S DOING

D. A. Short, your Telephone Manager for Heppner

New type of voiceway goes to work in rural areas

The telephone cable being put up by this line-man is one of the newest things in the telephone business. It looks like nothing so much as an old-fashioned twist of licorice. But actually it's six pairs of wire coated with a special abrasive-resistant plastic. The new cable was especially designed for use in telephone lines in areas where homes are widely scattered. It's extremely light and easy to work with. And its cost in use is less than other kinds of wire. Savings like this help us keep good telephone service one of the best buys in your family budget. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Need tools in a hurry? Here's the place to find them

Seems like 'most everyone's a "do-it-yourself" fan these days. That makes this tip handy to remember: When you need new tools to start one of these jobs, a good place to look is in the Yellow Pages of your telephone book. Fact is, the Yellow Pages show where you can find 'most anything you want. That's because nearly everyone in town with something to sell advertises in them. So next time you need something fast, just turn to the handy Yellow Pages.

Are You Missing Any Calls?

Listing additional members of your family or firm is a sure way to avoid lost calls. Gives an impression of having a telephone of their own. Helps new and old friends and out-of-town visitors to locate you and your address in the Heppner directory. The small cost makes these advantages a real bargain. Call your business office today.
