McCLURE-MOLLAHAN WEDDING HELD AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH SATURDAY

Miss Mary Mollahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Mollahan and Donald E. McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. McClure of Long Beach, California, were united in marriage Saturday, February 27 at five o'clock in St. Patrick's Catholic church, Heppner, with the Rev. Francis McCormack officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin with lace veil and tiara. She wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid. The maid of honor, Miss Frances Degnan, Portland wore pink net and carried white carnations and pink roses. The best man was John Mollahan, brother of the bride. Flower girl was Cathy Garrett of Portland, cousin of the bride.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Harry O'Donnell Jr., who sang "Mother At Your Feet, We're Kneeling", and Billy Kenny, who sang "Ava Maria", accompanied by Miss Marguerite Glavey at the organ.

Legion Auxiliary To Serve Banquet

The American Legion Auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday evening, March 1 at the Legion hall.

Plans were made for the Chamber of Commerce banquet which is to be held March 14. A discussion was held in regard to sending a girl to Girls State and it was voted to send one girl and if funds are available, to send two girls.

It was reported that a letter from the Library Board had been received, thanking the auxiliary for the donation of funds to purchase books on Oregon. The two books purchased were "In the Wallows," by Watson and "Home in Hells Canyon," by Mrs. Len Jordan.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jack Bailey and Mrs. Mike Saling.

was held in the church basement, which was lovely with pink and white carnations.

Pouring were Mrs. John Kenney and Mrs. Bob Garrett, Portland, aunt of the bride. Mrs. John Nirschl, Pendleton and Mrs. John Robinson, McGrath, Alta., Canada, served the wedding cake. Miss Janet Garrett, Portland, had charge of the guest book.

The groom is a student at the University of Oregon and the bride graduated from Heppner high school and the University of Oregon. The couple will be at home in Eugene.

MRS. FRIEDA KAJIYA, who will sing at a special concert at Ione Sunday evening.

Japanese Vocalist To Present Concert At Ione Sunday

Mrs. Frieda Kajiya of Condon, who has been widely acclaimed by music critics for her performance on a recent Portland television show, will present a vocal concert Sunday, March 13 at 7 p. m. in the Ione school cafeteria. It is to be a benefit concert sponsored by the Ione P.T.A.

Mrs. Kajiya, who is well known in her native country of Japan as Frieda Minami where she made several concert tours, has appeared as an entertainer for U. S. occupational troops. It was during these tours that she met her husband, Tom Kajiya and after his return to this country was stationed at the Condon Air Base.

This will be Mrs. Kajiya's first appearance since the death of her husband last month in a car accident in North Africa where he was on tour of duty with the army.

She is a graduate of the University of Tokyo conservatory of music and her mother is an accomplished pianist and teacher in Tokyo.

Her program at Ione will be entitled Songs from Around the World, and she will sing in seven different languages.
