ELISE BAUERNFEIND-JOHN PAISLEY MARRIED IN SUNDAY CEREMONY HERE

By Echo Palmateer

Miss Zoe Elise Bauernfeind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind of Morgan, became the bride of John David Paisley, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Paisley of Englewood, California, at three o'clock in the afternoon March 20 at the Christian church in Heppner, with Rev. Ed Svendsen of Luther House in Corvallis officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white stock, white carnations and blue dutch iris. White satin bows and blue dutch iris decorated the pews.

Alan Brubaker sang, The Lord's Prayer and Because, he was accompanied by Miss Joan Jackson who played the wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered tulle dress with long sleeves and peter pan collar. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held in place by a beaded tiara with seed pearl trim. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid centered in steponits.

The maid of honor was Miss Janet Howton of Ione and the bridesmaids were Miss Donna Porter, Pilot Rock and Miss Anne Dryer, Roseburg, both are roommates of the bride, at Oregon State College. The attendants wore ballerina length dresses of powder blue crystalet with lace yokes and matching headresses. They carried nosegays of white carnations and blue grape hyacinths. Deneice and Bernice Matthews, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews were flower girls, they were dressed in blue and carried baskets of Esther Reed daisies. Bonnie Kae Akers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, was ring bearer and was dressed identical to the flower girls.

The candlelighters were Mrs. Elmer Holtz and Mrs. Delmar Crawford, who wore blue net dresses over taffeta. Larry Downs, Grants Pass, was best man and ushers were Jack Bilben, Joseph Reed, Robert Nixon and Alan Brubaker all of Rogue River. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bauernfeind, wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and Mrs. Paisley, mother of the groom, wore a black dress with pink accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews was in charge of the reception which followed in the church parlors. She was assisted by Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Harold Sherer, and Mrs. Earl McCabe.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the four tiered cake which was topped with bells and surrounded by Esther Reed daisies, the rest was served by Mrs. Evalyn Farrens assisted by Miss Patsy Wright and Mrs. Frank Young assisted by Miss Judy Howton. Pouring were Mrs. Berl Akers, Mrs. Paisley, Mrs. Echo Palmateer and Mrs. Bauernfeind. Mrs. Franklin Ely and Mrs. Cecil Thorne had charge of the punch bowl and in charge of the gift tables were Mrs. Howard Crowell, Kay Sherer, Grace McCabe and Sharon Cutsforth.

For traveling the bride wore an avocado faille suit with tan accessories and her orchid. The young couple will be at home in Corvallis where they are attending Oregon State College. He will graduate in June and will take a practice teaching course this summer. The bride is a junior and she also is a graduate of the Ione schools.

Out of town guests coming for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Paisley, Englewood, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, grandparents of the groom, Rogue River; Ed McElroy, Pasadena, Calif.; Miss Doris Johnson, Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
