HEALTH FOR ALL PREVENTING TUBERCULOSIS

By the Morrow County TB and Health Ass'n.
TB is your problem.

But, you say, you don't know a single person who has tuberculosis. Are you sure? How do you know? That's just the trouble with this insidious disease. It can hide for long periods behind a mask that imitates health.
If TB were like measles, it would probably be under complete control today. Medical science can plot the course of measles from the time of infection through the incubation period to the outbreak of the familiar symptoms. Within a specified time the disease is cured, and the patient is immune to another infection. Not so with tuberculosis.

In the first place, infection with tuberculosis germs does not necessarily mean that disease will break out at all. You can be exposed to TB, take in a good dose of germs from someone who has the disease, and yet be able to fight the germs to a standstill. Months, even years later the disease might start up either because of a new invasion of germs or because the body's defense against the old infection have weakened. Even then tuberculosis may not declare itself openly. It can be active for some time without obvious symptoms.

Since a person who has TB may not feel ill, he may go about his business and pleasure as usual. Of course, he will be getting steadily worse and spreading germs to those about him, although he looks as healthy as ever.

Another way tuberculosis differs from many other infectious diseases is that one outbreak doesn't always end the story. The cured ex-patient has to make an effort to stay well, for his disease can start up again if he is careless with his health.

There are no red spots to identify those who have active tuberculosis. You may or may not be one of them. But it is your responsibility to know. You can know for sure by having a regular physical checkup by your physician and a chest X-ray as often as he advises.

HOTTEST-SELLING BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

$2638.27
delivered locally!

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in different communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster $81.70
Radio & Antenna $92.50

UNLESS we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the new transportation charges to the West have lowered the price even more—and that the dollar difference between this big Buick SPECIAL and the leading smaller cars has now virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before
But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the supremely spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

More advanced styling, more deep-down comfort, more pure power thrill, more ride steadiness and handling ease and solidity of structure.

More spectacular performance, too, from the modest extra cost of Buick's automatic transmission.

For here you get Variable Pitch Dynaflo[†]—the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

[†]Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick
