

Ray Heimbigner Named New Ione P-TA President

By Echo Palmateer

The following officers were installed at the P-TA meeting Wednesday evening, May 11 at the school cafeteria; with Fredrick Martin the outgoing president as installing officer; Ray Heimbigner, president; Mrs. Delbert Emert, vice president; and Mrs. Loren Leathers, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Noel Dobyns was the outgoing secretary-treasurer. They were all presented with corsages and boutonnieres made by Mrs. Edith Nicholson and Mrs. Cecil Thorne, members of the Garden club. Mr. Martin and Mr. Heimbigner each gave talks on the P-TA work.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mr. Heimbigner, delegates to the state P-TA convention in Portland in April, gave very interesting reports on the convention. Mrs. Rietmann spoke on the work shops, programs and juvenile problems and Mr. Heimbigner told of the convention in general and the speakers. One of the speakers was Roy Lieualen, president of the Oregon College of Education.

Other members on the program conducted by Mrs. L. A. McCabe were a piano duet by Karen Lundell and Linda Heimbigner and a style show by the Home Living class with their teacher, Mrs. Jack Miller. Those in the show were: Kay Sherer, Bonnie Crum, Louise Botts and Grace McCabe. They modeled aprons, skirts and blouses. Julie Rietmann was the pianist.

The business meeting was opened by Mr. Martin by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner led by Joe Hausler, the flag salute and the P-TA prayer by Mr. Martin. Mr. Heimbigner gave the lunch room report, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen stated that she is collecting Queen Bess coupons for silver for the lunch room. Garland Swanson told of the new law that requires five members on the school board. Three new members will be elected at the annual school meeting June 20. Mrs. Halvorsen, Mrs. Delbert Emert and Wallace Matthews were elected to circulate petitions for the nominations of board members. These petitions will require at least ten signatures.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. Lloyd Howton, Mrs. L. A. McCabe, Mrs. Bryce Keene and Mrs. Milton Morgan. The tables were decorated with spring flowers.
