Graduation Held At Monument

By Martha Matteson

A nice crowd turned out Monday evening for the graduation program and dance. Seen among the crowd was Mrs. Jessie Batty, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Bell, Mrs. Gilbert Batty of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stafford and son Carl Wayne of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Batty and Linda of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Harrison of Eagle Creek, former residents here, were in town over the week-end taking care of business and visiting friends.

Lula Settle had the misfortune to wreck her car on the Heppner-Spray road Friday afternoon coming back from Heppner. Bill Richards brought her on to Monument and then to Pendleton to the hospital. Her husband accompanied her.

Among the Monument people in Pendleton Saturday were Joe Bulliet, Louise Kelly, Jessie Matteson and Judy Johnson.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson who has been in Pendleton doctoring the past two weeks was taken to Heppner May 14 to visit her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Bailey.

Bob Strange drove to Ize May 9th to work for the summer.

Mrs. Katie Hinton of Hamilton, was in town Friday evening on business.

Esten Stevens was in town getting ready to move to Happy Jack for the summer where he will work on the reserve.

Mrs. Olive Cox drove to Portland Saturday morning for a few days.

Miss Floy Strange has moved to the Hubert Asher home in Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Settle are the parents of a daughter Linda Gayle, born at Heppner May 9. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Settle of Monument and George Gray of La Salle, Utah.

Maynard Hamilton is doing some plumbing at Long Creek this week.

Mrs. Bruce Strange of Unity came over Friday evening to move his wife and son Bruce to Unity to live now that school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Erhardt, two daughters and son left Sunday for Portland where John is to have some dental work done.

The different grades at school had their picnics last week. The high school is to have theirs at Ritter. Report cards to be handed out Tuesday.

Delmer Settle who moved his family to Long Creek two weeks ago, went to Heppner Sunday after his wife and new daughter. He went through Pendleton to see his mother who is in the hospital and then on to Long Creek where his sister, Moya Gilman met him with his two other children. Jessie Matteson will work for the Settles for two weeks.

Bill Settle called the wrecker from Pendleton to go after his car at Spray.

Thelma Williams returned to John Day Friday for a checkup.

Guests at the Dick Williams home last weekend were his stepfather, Arthur Raine and son Frank who is in the navy and a sister, Mrs. Ida Belle Fluharty, who stayed to visit. The men left after visiting two days.

Icel Dunn of Pasco, Wash., was in town to appoint a new salesman for Avon Products. Doris Kingman will replace Nona Strange.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kingman returned home Sunday night from Chelan, Wash., where they visited for a week.
