In Canada Fishing Is a Family Affair

Fishing in Canada isn't a "men-only" proposition, as many a family has found. Canada's fishing waters are easily accessible to touring families, and both mothers and their small fry enjoy trying their skill—or luck—just as much as the menfolk. For details on where to go and where to fish in Canada, would-be anglers are invited to write to the Canadian Government Travel Bureau, Ottawa, Canada, for literature, maps and other information.

Monument News

By Martha Matteson

Martha Matteson received a phone call May 24 from Mrs. Shamblin of Portland, telling of the death on that day of Little John Smith of Portland.

Mr. Smith was born in Look-houser, Germany June 23, 1870 and came to America in 1895 arriving at his father's home in Hamilton on Nov. 8 of that year. He made his home between Hamilton and Monument for several years herding sheep, then moved to Heppner where he resided for 50 years. For the past five years he has made his home in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shamblin, formerly of Heppner.

Services were held at 11 a. m. May 28 at the Little Chapel of the Chimes with interment at Lincoln Memorial.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis, who are moving to Woodland, Wash., came back after the rest of their household goods. They sold their home which has the post office adjoining, to Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Farnes of Kimberly.

Roy Miller, who is now working for the Johnny Hudspeth Co., at Prineville, came in for the weekend with his family. He had his son, Spike, with him.

Delmer Settle finished moving last Sunday as he has sold his ranch to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cox who will remodel it before moving in.

Jim Crocker and family drove to the valley Friday for the weekend with his parents who are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. A large number of children turned out this week for summer school at the Community church. Clenta Mellor, Joava Enright, Betty Saddler and Martha Matteson met at the home of Linnie Gilman May 24 and fixed poppy sprays for the veteran's graves.

Ansel Martin is now employed at the Bill Reniger ranch.

The Ray Davis family drove to California to visit over the week-end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer "Brick" Smith and children are visiting over the weekend with her folks, the Lee Jones and Van Dettas. He is a pilot whose plane crashed about two months ago but he parachuted to safety.

Joe Mahons came in from Elgin where he is working. He moved his trailer house and family now that school is out.

Lee Slocum and Maynard Hamilton were in Heppner Thursday on business.

Bill Settle went to Pendleton Tuesday to bring his wife home. She had been in the hospital following a car wreck two weeks ago.

Clarence Buxton returned home from John Day clinic where he has been a patient for two weeks.

Mrs. Slocum Mrs. Ida Leona Slocum, 69 years of age, passed away in Pendleton May 22. She was born in Missouri Jan. 20, 1886.

Services were held at Folsom's Funeral chapel May 25 with Rev. (Continued on page 6)
