Ham And Wheat Croquettes An Unusual Combination

You never outgrow your need for cereal and milk! Try Ham and Wheat Croquettes for a unique way to include cereal and milk in your family's diet. These oven-baked croquettes will delight homemakers. They eliminate the tedious deep-fat frying usually required for cooking croquettes. Ham and Wheat Croquettes can be made earlier in the day and refrigerated until time to bake—a real timesaver for the busy homemaker in the late afternoon.

Milk and cereal make an equal contribution to the food values common to both. This combination offers nine important nutrients: protein, carbohydrate, thiamine, niacin, riboflavin, iron, phosphorus, calcium, and fat. There are few foods that can better the nutritional composition of cereal and milk—whether used as a main dish at breakfast, luncheon or snacks, or in combination with other foods such as the Ham and Wheat Croquettes.

Ham And Wheat Croquettes

2 tablespoons butter or margarine	1 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons flour	2½ cups ground cooked ham
¼ teaspoon salt	¼ cup minced onion
few grains pepper	2 tablespoons minced parsley
½ cup milk	2 tablespoons water
¾ cup whole wheat cereal, uncooked, instant or regular	1 egg, beaten
	1 cup crushed corn flakes

Melt butter, add flour, salt and pepper and stir until smooth. Add milk gradually, stirring during addition. Cook over low heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Cook 5 minutes longer. Add whole wheat cereal gradually to rapidly boiling water; stir constantly until thickened; cook slowly 2 minutes. Combine white sauce, cooked whole wheat cereal, ham, onion, and parsley; mix well. Chill thoroughly. Form into 8 croquettes, ¾ inch thick. Mix water and egg. Roll croquettes in crushed corn flakes, then in egg mixture, and again in crushed corn flakes. Bake in shallow pan in hot oven (400° F.) 20 minutes. Serve with mushroom, cheese, or tomato sauce, as desired. Yield: 8 croquettes.
