

Social Happenings

Mrs. Jack Bedford, Reporter—Social News Deadline 6 p. m. Tuesdays

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker are shown cutting the cake during a reception Sunday at the Heppner Christian church in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. More than 150 relatives and friends from as far away as Texas attended the reception. (GT Photo)

FRANK S. PARKERS HONORED AT GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker were honored on their golden wedding anniversary at a reception given by their children and the Crusaders class of the Christian church Sunday afternoon in the church parlors. Over 175 friends and relatives attended. Children and their families present were two daughters, Mrs. Frances Mitchell, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Gail, Marie and Malcolm, Heppner; two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Parker, Cecelia and Bucky, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Jay, Marianne, Tony and Gregory, Pendleton and a married granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and Charlotte, Morgan. A re-enactment of the wedding service was observed with the Rev. Earl Soward officiating. Attendees were Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Salem and Garfield Crawford, Ft. Worth, Texas, brother of Mrs. Parker, both of whom attended the marriage fifty years ago, on June 11, 1905, at Dayton, Washington at the home of Mrs. Parker's sister, Mrs. L. G. Atherton. Mrs. Parker received a diamond ring from her husband at the mock service. Musical numbers for the wedding service and during the afternoon included piano solos by Mrs. J. O. Turner; vocal solos, "Love's Old Sweet Song" by Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr. and "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet" and "Bless This House" by Oliver Creswick accompanied by Mrs. Turner. A quartet, "I Want a Girl Just Like the Girl Who Married Dear Old Dad" was sung by the John Parker children accompanied by their mother, and Bucky Parker sang "God Will Take Care of You" accompanied by his sister, Cecelia. Mrs. Tom Wilson played violin selections accompanied by Mrs. Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Parker cut the first piece of a three-tiered wedding cake of pink and white topped with a golden fifty. Serving was continued by Mrs. Vawter Parker, Mrs. Clyde Crawford and Mrs. Parker Severs. Pouring at the coffee table, beautifully decorated with yellow iris and roses, were Mrs. Lester Doolittle and Mrs. Earl Soward. The flowers were from the yard of Mrs. Charles Vaughn. Serving at the punch bowl were Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. Leonard Schwarz and Mrs. W. C. Kennedy. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mrs. J. O. Turner and the grandchildren, Mrs. C. C. Carmichael was in charge of the guest book. Before making their permanent home on their ranch just below Heppner in 1918, Mr. and Mrs. Parker lived at Pendleton, Cove, Hell's Canyon where they ran cattle and Philomath in the Willamette valley. Other relatives at the anniversary were Mrs. Parker's brother, O. G. Crawford, Gearhart; nieces and nephews and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jones of Pasco; Arthur Crawford, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hayes and son, Leland, Joseph; Mrs. Roy Jones, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz and Len Ray, Heppner. Also present were Mr. Parker's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Stephenson, Washington and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Severs, Condon. Cousins and their families present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conover, Vancouver, Washington; Mrs. Maxine Nelson, Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. Forest Conover, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conover, Mrs. Myrtle Russell and Mrs. Della Brunson, Waitsburg. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Claron Ghormley, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ghormley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Hoomissen, Portland; Mrs. Percy Hughes, Milton and Mrs. Elsie Lasater, Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were the recipients of many lovely gifts including one from the Eastern Star and an anniversary clock from the Christian church presented by Mrs. Roy Nell. Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Schaffitz had as their guests on Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ragland of North Bend, Oregon. Judy Spaulding is visited this week in Moro.

Donna Lovgren Weds Robert Peterson At Valby Church

By Echo Palmateer
At a candlelight ceremony at the Valby Lutheran church Saturday June 11, Miss Donna Lovgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren of Heppner, became the bride of Robert Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson of Ione. Rev. Edwin Svendsen of Corvallis officiating with the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white net with a bouffant embroidered net overskirt and a fingertip veil of net caught with a tiara of ivory stephanotis. She carried a single orchid centered in stephanotis and white streamers on a white Bible. Her maid of honor was Judy Wright who wore a blue voile ballerina dress. Bridesmaids were Joan Thomas, Barbara Prock, and Karen Prock, who wore pink strapless ballerina length dresses of net over taffeta with net stoles. They all carried nosegays of Esther Reed daisies. Ted Peterson, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Larry Lovgren, Herbert Peterson and Gerald Peterson. The candlelighters were Kay Keithley and Alice Peterson. They wore apple green dresses. The flower girl was Marsha Lovgren who was dressed in pink organdy and Stephen Skuzeski was ring bearer. Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

MARRIED MAY 27 at the Methodist church in Hood River were Miss Clarice Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hastings of Heppner, and Cpl. Howard Henry. They will live in Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ruggles, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruggles also played the wedding marches. The mother of the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and a white rose corsage and the groom's mother wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. A reception followed in the parish house. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom, the rest was cut by Mrs. Al Lovgren, assisted by Mrs. Opal Adams. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Robert Lovgren. Mrs. Owen Leathers poured and Mrs. James Lovgren presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marshal Lovgren was at the gift table and Dean Lovgren and Phyllis Peterson had charge of the guest book. The bride's going away suit was pink with black accessories and she wore her orchid. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Heppner. Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and son Allen of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Kvistad of Beaverton.

Bridal Shower Honors Former Ida Lee Chapel

A bridal shower in honor of Mrs. Lee Bisbois, Spray, the former Ida Lee Chapel, was given by the Mistletoe Rebekah lodge of Hardman Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Wright. Other hostesses were Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Tom Fraters, Mrs. Victor Lovgren, Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mrs. Kenneth Batty and Miss Marilyn Bergstrom. Decorations of iris and peonies and an umbrella showering gifts were used. Guests were Mesdames Roy Thomas, Ray Wright, Barton Clark, John Bergstrom, Lucille Ayers, Ben Anderson, Harvey Harshman, Claude Buschke, Frank E. Parker, Alfred Lovgren, Harold Stevens, Jim Hams, Clive Huston, Clyde Wright, Jessie Batty and Misses Sally Palmer and Carolyn Calvin. Mr. and Mrs. Brisbois were married May 22 at Spray where they are now residing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel of Hardman.

Renegers Bridge Club Meets Wednesday

The Renegers Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Alex Thompson last Wednesday evening. Members and guests present were Mrs. Richard Meador, Mrs. Bradley Fancher, Mrs. James Norone, Mrs. William Barratt, Mrs. La Verne Van Marter, Mrs. Jack Marshall, Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mrs. Robert Jepsen and the hostess. Mrs. Gene Hall and Mrs. Jack Marshall tied for high score and Mrs. Robert Miller was low. Refreshments were served later.

Family Picnic Held Sunday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Gilliam of San Jose, California, were guests of honor at a family picnic Sunday evening at the Cutsforth cabin on Herren creek. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gilliam, Len L. Gilliam, Miss Ona Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Gilliam.

Sans Souci Rebekahs Have Initiation

Members of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge met Friday night for initiation ceremonies. Those initiated were Mrs. Jack Sumner, Mrs. Mildred Tucker and Mrs. Ad Moore. Refreshments of birthday cake and coffee were served in the dining room by the committee with Mrs. Robert Dobbs in charge.

Barbara Lynn Wright To Be July Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Lynn, to Ronald Wayne Haguewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Haguewood. The wedding will take place Friday evening, July 1 at 7:30 p. m. in the Christian church in Heppner. All friends and relatives are cordially invited.

Twelve Tables Play At Elks Ladies Night

Twelve tables of cards were in play Thursday evening at the Elks ladies night, following the Flag Day ceremonies of the lodge. High score in pinochle was held by Mrs. Robert Dobbs and second Mrs. Delmar Jordan. In bridge Mrs. Claude Graham won high and Mrs. Orville Smith, was second high. Mrs. Cleo Drake, Ione, won the door prize.

USE GAZETTE TIMES CLASSIFIED ADS

Rainbow Girls Install Officers

Joan Wright was installed as worthy advisor of the Rainbow Girls at their last meeting. Jean Marie Graham was installing officer, Mary Ruth Green, installing marshal and Mrs. Howard Bryant, installing recorder. Other officers installed were Barbara Warren, charity; Janet Keithley, hope; Meredith Thomson, faith; Carol Groshens, confidential observer; Kay Keithley, confidential outer observer; Phyllis Quackenbush, drill leader; Janice Martin, chaplain and Carolyn McDaniel, musician. Color stations include Carole Anderson, nature; Celia Boulden, religion; Nancy Slocum, patriotism; Helen Graham, service; Bonnie Hanna, love; Fern Albert, fidelity and Marilyn Calvin, immortality. Attending the grand assembly at McMinnville, June 19-21, will be Joan Wright, Jean Marie Graham, grand representative, Barbara Warren, and Virginia Andresen. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Mary Van Stevens, mother advisor and Mrs. Claude Graham.

Soroptimists Plan Annual Banquet

Plans were made Thursday at the Soroptimist club luncheon at O'Donnells, for the annual installation banquet, which will be Saturday evening June 25. It will be at the Episcopal parish hall at 7:00 p. m. and the La Grande club and husbands of members of the Heppner club will be guests. Several guests

Twelve Tables Play At Elks Ladies Night

Twelve tables of cards were in play Thursday evening at the Elks ladies night, following the Flag Day ceremonies of the lodge. High score in pinochle was held by Mrs. Robert Dobbs and second Mrs. Delmar Jordan. In bridge Mrs. Claude Graham won high and Mrs. Orville Smith, was second high. Mrs. Cleo Drake, Ione, won the door prize.

USE GAZETTE TIMES CLASSIFIED ADS

LILIAN TURNER FOUNDATION
FATHER'S DAY HAM DINNER
 LEXINGTON I. O. O. F. HALL
SUNDAY, JUNE 19
 1:00 To 3:00 P. M.
 Adults $1.25 Children 75c

THIS Father's Day
KINGS MEN
 will bring you closer to HIM

Dad will think of you every day he uses KINGS MEN TOILETRIES.

PRICES WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL

FEATURED THIS FATHER'S DAY

OTHER GIFT SUGGESTIONS

- Ronson Lighters
- Shaeffer Pens
- Cuff Links
- Bill Folds
- Pipes

ELECTRIC SHAVERS
 ALL BRANDS
 $5 to $7.50 Trade in on Old Shaver

TIMEX WATCHES
 Shockproof—Just right for work or play.
 9.95 To 12.95

Phil's Pharmacy
 PHIL BLAKNEY, Owner

PENNEY'S
 ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY

A POPular Guy Deserves the Best

... says BOB HOPE Penney's Father of the Year!
 (See Bob at Pop Foy in "The Seven Little Foys")

DACRON SPORT SHIRTS
 Special purchase of these Short Sleeve Plisse and Leno Shirts in Wonderful Dacron—Pastel and White.
$1.88

DRESS SHIRTS 2.98
 Whites, Fancies, Pastels

TEE SHIRTS 98c
 White, Pastel, Black, Pink, Heli.

SHIRTS, TIES, SOCKS, STRAW HATS, WESTERN SHIRTS, MATCHED SETS, SLACKS, EVERYTHING FOR A WONDERFUL

FATHER'S DAY—JUNE 19TH

LET US

Dry Clean

YOUR GOOD

Cottons

THEY'LL KEEP THAT

Crisp, New Look

INDEFINITELY!

Don't risk ruining your good summer cotton dresses by washing them. Too many times they lose their crisp brightness and look like an old dress long before their time.

Send your good cottons to us for expert cleaning. We handle your cottons as carefully as we would an expensive wool dress or suit and our service includes a resizing process to give your dress, skirt or jacket the full body and looks of new.

don't risk washing your good cottons... let us dry clean them!

JUST CALL US FOR SERVICE

Heppner Cleaners
 PHONE 6-9441