

Vandals Damage Boardman School

By Mary Lee Marlow
Vandals were at work over the weekend at the Boardman school when they threw large rocks, breaking about thirty of the brick glass windows in the show-er and dressing rooms of the new gymnasium, and about twelve windows in the vocational agri-culture room in the basement of the old gymnasium. Robert Har-wood, custodian, discovered the damage when he went to work Monday morning. Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman is investigating, but so far there is no clue as to who did it.
