

HAGUEWOOD-WRIGHT WEDDING VOWS READ SATURDAY IN HEPPNER

A bride of last Saturday at the Heppner Christian church was Miss Lynn Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright of Lexington, whose wedding to Ronald Haguewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Haguewood, took place at 7:30 in the evening with Rev.

Earl Soward performing the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a ballet length gown of white embroidered organza. She wore a shoulder length veil of white net and lace mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds centered with an orchid.

Miss Rene Griffith, maid of honor, wore lavender nylon and carried a nosegay of yellow iris. The bridesmaids, Nancy Wright, sister of the bride, Judy Bradford, cousin of the bride, Adelia Anderson and June Privett wore similar frocks of yellow nylon and carried nosegays of lavender iris. Larry Lovgren was best man and ushers were Malcolm McKinney, Stacey Lovgren, Jerry Haguewood and Robert Steagall.

Yellow tapers were lit by Jean and Jeanette Addy of Hermiston. Ring bearers were Jack and John Hatfield of Lexington. The two flower girls, Sue Griffith and Deanne Wright, sister of the bride, were attired in yellow nylon gowns, similar to those of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. O. G. Haguewood, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece black and white gown with white accessories and a red rosebud corsage. Mother of the bride, Mrs. Oral Wright, was attired in blue and white and wore a corsage of blue delphinium.

Mrs. J. O. Turner, at the organ, accompanied Miss Marilyn Munkers who sang "Because of You" and "Always."

At the reception following the ceremony, the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Bert Kane and Mrs. Herbert Hamilton, aunts of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Henry Hapold, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Earl McKinney. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Don Hatfield. The groom's cake was cut by Mrs. Mark Church of Portland, aunt of the bride. Miss Pat Steagall was in charge of the guest book and Miss Marilyn Munkers had charge of the gift table.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall, Mrs. Reta Oviatt and Ricky, Mrs. Charles Lane, Mrs. Mark Church, Carolyn Church and Marilyn South all of Portland.

Following a wedding trip, the young couple will be at home at the Haguewood ranch, where the groom will be associated with his father in farming.

POTLUCK HONORS WALKERS

A potluck dinner was held Sunday at the Methodist church, following the services, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walker. The Walkers are moving to Roseburg from Heppner, where he will be with the State Tax Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penland and Neal returned Monday from a few days spent at Wallowa Lake.

Miss Wilma Jean Hug Becomes Bride of Sidney Ferguson

Miss Wilma Jean Hug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnin Hug, of Boardman became the bride of Sidney Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ferguson, in a quiet ceremony at the Boardman Community church Saturday, July 2, at 9 a. m. The service was read by the Rev. A. E. David, pastor of the Methodist church, Hermiston, before a flower decked altar.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories with a white orchid corsage.

Miss Wanda Hug was her sister's only attendant, and wore a blue suit with a red rose corsage. Leonard Bedford, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held in the basement of the church following the ceremony for members of the two families. After the first piece of the four tiered cake was cut by the couple, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Delmer Hug, sister-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Guy Ferguson served at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Ralph Ferguson poured at the coffee table.

The bride was a graduate of Boardman high school in 1954, and attended Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland last year. After a short honeymoon trip they will live at Newport, where the groom is employed.
