

Dust Storm, Rain Cool Temperatures In Boardman Area

By Mary Lee Marlow
A dust storm here Sunday cooled the weather down again from last week's heat. Sunday's maximum of 84 was appreciated after Friday's maximum of 100 and Saturday's 96. The wind continued through Monday, with the top temperature only 78. Tuesday morning a light rain was falling. John Partlow started digging potatoes Sunday. The season is later than usual this year, as the spud harvest is usually about half through by this time. Russell and Bob Miller have not started digging yet, but plan to the last of the week. Mrs. Charles Andererg entertained with a picnic and swimming party down at the river last Thursday in honor of her granddaughter, Bonny June Garverson, of Salem, who was celebrating her seventh birthday. Present were Mrs. Henry Zivney and Roger, Mrs. Wally Sewal and Timmy, Mrs. Ralph Skoubo and Dick and Bobbie, Mrs. Ed Skoubo and Davy, Mrs. Alby Taylor and Toni, Mrs. Elvin Ely and Elleen,

Mrs. William Garner and Anita, Mrs. Russell Miller and Jimmy and Patty, Mrs. Max Vannoy and Lynn, Cheryl, Mark and Dayle, Mrs. Zoe Billings and Brenda, Mrs. Toni Zelinski and Toni Kay and Ronnie, and Barbara Andererg. Mrs. Arnold Hoffman and children Edna, Jimmy, Teddy and Linda went to Condon Saturday to attend the wedding of her brother, David Adlard and Miss Bobbie Jo Stroud. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith Sr. and son Carl Jr., Healdsburg, Calif., visited at the home of Smith's niece, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe last Thursday on their way to Union to visit Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith. Election of officers was held at the meeting of the Wives club last week at the home of Mrs. Frederick Crowner at Ordinance. Mrs. John Blackburn was elected president; Mrs. Miles Standish, vice president; Mrs. Crowner, secretary; Mrs. Gren Hawes, treasurer. The club also made plans about entering a booth at the North Morrow county Fair, and a float for the parade. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Thurman Johnson on August 2. The Ladies Aid society of Community church held an all day work meeting at the church Wednesday, July 20, with a sack lunch at noon. The day was spent planting iris bulbs in the church yard, and rolling bandages for missionary work. Denny Zerba, Pendleton, visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Jones last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller, Mrs. Arnie Hug and Miss Zelma Cowan all attended the Cannon Beach Bible conference last week. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bergseth went to Seattle, Wash., Saturday, to be gone a week. Mrs. Emma Smith, Plainview, Texas visited at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. A. Eades, several days the past week. Other visitors of Mrs. Eades last week was her grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Woolley and sons Mike and Stanley, Ponca City, Okla., who also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Eades. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Harwood, Portland, spent the weekend at the home of Harwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harwood. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lilly and children, Jimmy, Janet and Jay, La Grande, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Lilly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely. Vickie Ashley, Spokane, Wash., who has visited for two weeks at the home of her uncle and aunt, M/Sgt. and Mrs. Gren Hawes, returned to her home last week. Sharon Hawes accompanied her and the two girls to Camp Wandermere for a week's stay. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. Florence Root are on a trip to Fort Collins, Colo., to visit at the home of Mrs. A. T. Herriam, former resident of Boardman several years ago. Nancy Rands, Stayton, spent the weekend here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Rands. Jim Thorpe returned home Saturday from visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith in Union for the past three weeks. John Luhrs, Corvallis, has been visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Skoubo, the past ten days. Sunday Mrs. Skoubo and son Davy and Glenn Luhrs took her to La Grande to visit other relatives.

No wonder this Hardtop is the HIT OF THE YEAR!

IT'S 4-DOOR HANDY —and priced for action!

This one you'll just have to see. It's a beauty. It's a brand-new kind of car. It's a Buick Riviera with four doors. And to top it all—it's a SPECIAL—the lowest-priced of all Buick Series.

Know what that means? It means you can have the newest hit in hardtops—the most advanced new body design yet—and you can have it in the price range of America's smaller cars.

It means you can have a steel-roofed car with the long, low, sweeping sportiness of a convertible—with no center posts in the side window areas—and with two separate doors to the rear.

And you can have all this hardtop beauty with sedan comfort and convenience at the easy-to-take modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model.

But if you think that's all—listen: This gleaming grace of automobile is a Buick through and through—a '55 Buick, from the hottest-selling line of Buicks in all history.

So here you have the soft, firm steadiness of Buick's all-coil-spring ride and torque-tube stability. Here you have Buick brawn, Buick solidity, Buick handling ease, Buick styling and visibility and interior luxury.

And here you have the lift and life of vigorous new V8 power of record might—and coupled to the spectacular performance of Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

Why wait a day longer—when you can come in right now and try the first true hardtop with the extra comfort, room and convenience of a full-sized 4-door sedan?

Drop in tomorrow, first thing—for a look at the price, and an idea of the whopping-big trade-in deal our huge sales volume permits us to make.

*Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.
