

McCallister Rites Held at Lexington

By Delpha Jones

Funeral services were held at the Lexington Christian church on Sunday for Harvey McCallister, formerly of Heppner and Lexington. The Rev. L. G. Wetzel officiated at the service. Leonard Munkers accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael sang, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Sunrise". The active pallbearers were E. E. Peck, Al Fetsch, W. E. McMillan, Oris Padberg, E. E. McFadden, and Archie Munkers. These men were all members of the Lexington I. O. O. F. lodge. The following members of the Edwards-Way Post number 6098 V. F. W. gave the services at the cemetery: George Irvin, Jack Edmondson, Gloyd Breeding, Marvin Way, Leonard Munkers, Charlie Padberg, Carl Marquardt, Bill J. Van Winkle, Roy Martin, assisted by Skip Ruhl as bugler. The honorary pallbearers were John and Rob Wightman, Harold Becket, R. B. Rice, Frank Parker and C. J. D. Bauman; all members of the Masonic lodge of Heppner of which he was also a member.

Those from Portland coming to the services were a brother C. R. McCallister who is living at the Oddfellows home in Portland, and a brother Marshall McCallister who is also of that city and Sam McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding returned Sunday from a vacation spent in Yamhill, Portland and at the coast. They visited their three daughters who live there.

Mr. and Mrs. Pine Thornburg returned Sunday from a visit in Bend and Prineville, where Mr. Thornburg went as a delegate to an American Legion convention.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske returned by plane on Saturday night from Wisconsin where she has been visiting her sisters and a host of friends.

Mrs. Emma M. C. Breshears and granddaughter Georgia Gibson returned Sunday from Indiana where she had been on a two weeks visit with her sister.

Mrs. Lawrence Brent returned to her home on Tuesday from an extended visit with her parents in Tulsa Oklahoma where she attended classes at the College there. Returning with her was Jewell Boone who will be the third and fourth grade teacher in the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Surge Coval and children have moved into the Beach house, and is preparing for his years teaching the coming year. Mrs. Coval will also teach in the local high school.

Mr. Jim Angell and son Larry and Bobby Davidson returned Sunday afternoon from a weeks vacation spent in Wallowa Lake at the Boy Scout camp. Mr. Angell went as a camp counselor.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist community church in Union on Monday morning at 10:30 a. m. for Rhoda Jones, who passed away in Pendleton on Thursday evening after an extended illness. Mrs. Jones was born in Cambridge, Ohio, Dec. 18, 1876, and was a resident of Baker and Union counties for 59 years. She was a member of the Union Presbyterian church, but in later years affiliated with the Nazarene church of that city.

The Rev. Billy Hudson of Union officiated at the services with the vocalist Helen Wilson of La Grande, accompanied by Alberta Wolfe also of that city, sang "There Is No Night There" and "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone". Postlude music was furnished by Glenna Jean Kiser of Union. Mrs. Jones was preceded in death by her husband Charles H. Jones, Sept. 1947, one sister and two brothers. She leaves to mourn her passing the following children, Bonita Stitts of Yakima, Washington; Ruth Brunelle of Tieton, Washington; Myrtle Miller of La Grande; Charles C. Jones of Lexington and William N. of Portland; 15 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, and the following sisters; Jesse Clark and Lily Payton of Baker, and Olive Harrison of Winlock, Washington, and Mary Jones of North Powder. Interment was in the Union cemetery. Daniel funeral home in La Grande was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Jones is well known in Lexington, having spent quite some time at the home of her son, Cecil Jones, at different intervals.

Mrs. James Swindle and infant son, James, have returned from Pioneer Memorial hospital. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and Sharon and Joan Patrick and Gene Heliker and Kenny Jones returned Thursday from a weeks vacation at Yellowstone Park. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth flew to Bend Friday where he was a delegate to a Farm Bureau convention.

Rev. and Mrs. Nels Fast and family of Mollalla, former Heppner residents, were visitors here over the weekend.
