Baily-Campbell Vows Read At St. John's Church in Condon

St. John's Catholic church in Condon was the scene Sunday August 7, of the wedding of Miss Martha Campbell, daughter of Mr. Pat Campbell, to Mr. Truman Baily, son of Mrs. Edna Baily of Hansen, Idaho. The Rev. William Roden officiated at the two o'clock ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a blue embroidered white linen dress with a matching white linen hat and carried pink roses on a white prayer book.

Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Kathryn Campbell. She wore an ice blue polished cotton frock and carried a nosegay of pink bouvardia and blue delphiniums, with a headband to match the nosegay. Both the bride and maid of honor dresses were made by a friend of the bride, Mrs. Harvey Matlock of Hermiston.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church. Mrs. Helen Rondeau played the wedding march and Mrs. Bill Brown sang "Ava Maria" and "Panis Angelicus".

The prayer book carried by the bride was borrowed from Mrs. Tom Bristow of Lone. For something old and something blue the bride wore the traditional blue garter trimmed with old lace. The garter was made by Mrs. Walter Anderson of Lewiston, Idaho using lace from her wedding dress for the trim.

Les Hagen, Hermiston was best man for the groom and ushers were Harvey Matlock and Jim Chisholm both of Hermiston.

Mrs. Art Bousquet of Umatilla god mother of the bride, wore a navy blue lace dress and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding, reception was held in the Parish hall, which was also decorated with pink, white and blue motif. The bride and groom cut the first piece from the three tiered pink and white wedding cake, Mrs. Don Cook of Hermiston and Mrs. Ted Palmer of Condon continued with the cutting of the cake. Mrs. James D. Burns and Mrs. William Campbell, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Malcolm O'Brien and Mrs. John Campbell both of Heppner, served the punch. Mrs. Jim Chisholm of Hermiston was in charge of the gift table and Mary Jane Anderson, Hermiston, had charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a charcoal and black summer cotton with patent accessories and a black velvet hat. They will be at home in Hermiston where both the bride and groom are teachers in the Hermiston
