

Accident Kills Husband of Former Monument Girl

By Martha Matteson

Mr. and Mrs. John Vestal and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holmes left Saturday morning for the valley after receiving word that Mr. Holmes' youngest daughter's husband was killed in a car wreck near Dallas. Mrs. Vestal is the Holmes' oldest daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kingman are taking care of the Vestal children while the parents are in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCarty were in Lon Creek Thursday for binder parts. Mrs. Archie Cox has returned from Kansas where she has been visiting her parents.

ONE School Notes

Plans are being formulated to secure Mrs. Grace Schmidt of Heppner for a part time home-making teacher. Mrs. Schmidt is a graduate of Washington State with a major in home economics and four years teaching experience in this particular field. Lone school district feels that they will be very fortunate in being able to obtain Mrs. Schmidt's services. Students of the Lone Public Schools will be encouraged to take advantage of a counseling and guidance service that has been set up for them this summer. Parents are urged to back this type of program.

Those students who will be away on vacations during school registration days, August 29th and 30th, may register on their first day of school, although it is suggested that if at all possible, students come for registration on one of the assigned days.

Phil Newitt, superintendent, would again like to encourage parents to visit the school to discuss problems that they do not understand or just to visit and see how their children are progressing. There are also plans for a weekly or monthly bulletin of school events, which will be sent to the parents, so that one and all may make plans accordingly.
